Thousands Of Germans Die In Escape Effort

Enemy Troops Die By Boatload In Attempt To Evacuate Sevastopol

NAZIS IN DRIVE ON NORTH FRONT (BULLETIN)

MOSCOW, April 21.—German forces, pressing their second counter-offensive within a week and seeking to escape through the Russian naval blockade of Sevastopol, died by the thousands today at each end of the twisting 1,800-mile front.

At least 2,000 Nazis were killed in the first day of the new push launched against a Soviet bridgehead across the Narva river inside Estonia, while the enemy troops died by the boatloads as the Black Sea fleet and Red air forces dealt coordinated blows against evacuation convoys attempting to flee besieged Sevastopol.

Drive On Dormant Front
The German counter-drive was staged on the long-Dormant northern front, obviously in a desperate bid to expel Gen. Leonid A. Govorov's Leningrad army from the northernmost Baltic state. It came but a few days after "large" enemy tank and infantry forces went over to the offensive east and south of Stanislawow.

A powerful 90-minute artillery bombardment preceded the German attack against the Russian bridgehead on the Narva's western bank. As the barrage lifted, hordes of Nazi infantrymen stormed forward backed by tanks and mobile guns, only to be met by a withering fire from all sizes of Soviet arms.

"During the day," said the mid-night Russian communique, "our units beat off numerous enemy attacks and are firmly holding their positions. The enemy has suffered heavy losses in men and equipment."

No details were provided in the regular operational communique.

Russian Leader Tells Why Nazis Lost In Ukraine

By NATALIA RENE
(U.S.S. Staff Correspondent)
ODESSA, April 21.—Failure of the Germans to develop any original tactics, except Hitler's do-or-die orders, was revealed today to have influenced greatly the strategy employed by the victorious Russian army in sweeping through the southern Ukraine into Rumania.

Gen. A. S. Rogov, deputy chief of staff of the Third Ukrainian army, described how Hitler's "innovation"—the order to hold ground at all costs—created a situation in which the Nazis were either encircled or forced to abandon all their material and flee.

As one of the main reasons for the frequent encirclement of Nazi troops on the southern front, Gen. Rogov cited the failure of the enemy to produce a single original idea in the way of new strategy or tactics.

"That is," the general said, "unless you would call Hitler's order to his troops to hold steadfast and not yield a single inch of ground 'new strategy.'"

Instead of saving the southern Ukraine, Rogov said, that order "backfired" and created a situation wherein the Nazis found themselves "haunted and oppressed by the ominous threats the order concealed."

"We soon found out that the divisional and regimental command was not working."

Jittery Germans Seek To Secure Invasion News

German Propagandists Pull Out All Stops On "Invasion Organ"

By J. C. OESTREICHER
(U.S.S. Foreign Editor)

German propagandists pulled out all the stops on the "invasion organ" today in another desperate but futile effort to prod the allies into precipitate action or smoke out some of the carefully guarded secrets of Anglo-American military strategy.

With allied bombers out in force against pre-invasion targets in Europe following a major night onslaught which carried the record number of 1,100 Royal Air Force planes to the ruins of Cologne, Nazi broadcasts filled the air with reports of imminent assaults upon the continent.

Berlin Report
Chief among them was a Berlin summary which said:

"The greatest concentration of ships since Dunkerque—including British, American, French and other allied vessels—is massing in British home waters."

"London is becoming more and more jittery."

Next Tuesday Is Election Day

Republicans And Democrats To Name Candidates For Fall Election

Tuesday, April 25, will be primary day in Pennsylvania, a primary in which national and state officers will be elected and delegates selected to the conventions of the Republican and Democratic parties, but you would never know it, judging from the lack of public interest. The campaign which will close to all intent and purposes on Saturday night has been one of the quietest on record.

Lack of competition in many offices may be one reason for the lethargy. Undoubtedly the war overshadowed elections and the two reasons together, at least locally, have resulted in a tame affair.

Many Offices
Many offices appear on the ballots. Voters will name candidates for United States senate, congress, state supreme court, state superior court, delegates both at large and in the districts to the national convention, candidates for state senate and the General Assembly. In addition, voters in each of the counties will name county committees.

Locally there have been but a few meetings or rallies. Some campaigning has been done by individual candidates but this has been much less than usual.

Princess Elizabeth 18 Years Old Today

Many Messages Of Congratulation Are Being Received By Princess

LONDON, April 21.—(U.S.S.)—Princess Elizabeth, 18 years old today, watched the famed Grenadier Guards change the guard and received a silk replica of the king's colors as a birthday present.

Messages of congratulation and telegrams poured in at the rate of one every two minutes. Among those messages of felicitation was one from Czechoslovakian President in Exile Eduard Benes wishing the royal princess "success in the new life which opens for you today."

New York, April 21.—(U.S.S.)—Princess Elizabeth of England was fettered on her birthday by 900,000 Girl Scouts of the United States through their national president, Mrs. Alan H. Means of Salt Lake City, Utah.

In a cabled greeting, Mrs. Means said: "Your devotion to the principles of girl guides and scouting have helped strengthen our world sisterhood...we send best wishes to you and your sister guides for strength, peace and happiness in the coming years."

Sumatra Attack Shows Burma Drive Looms

By MAJOR PAUL C. RABORG
(Written Especially for U.S.S.)

NEW YORK, April 21.—Admiral Sir James P. Somerville of the British Royal navy commanded the task force which successfully struck at the Japanese naval base on the island of Sabang, just off the northwestern tip of Sumatra.

No modern naval commander is more qualified for offensive action in far eastern waters than is Sir James.

He has held every grade in the British navy, being appointed a full admiral in 1942. He commanded the Mediterranean destroyer flotilla fleet in 1936, and was commander-in-chief of the East Indies area from 1938 to 1939, when he was retired.

Unpleasant Tasks
Recalled from retirement, Adm. Somerville was in charge of the evacuation of Dunkerque. Later assigned to the extremely unpleasant task of attacking the French naval units in the harbor at Oran, Africa, he completed that task most thoroughly. In 1941 he commanded the naval expedition which shelled Genoa, Italy, a then most daring assault.

Next he commanded the British fleet in the battle for the Bay of Bengal and the Indian ocean. Subsequently he led and directed the British naval units during the pursuit and sinking of Hitler's super battleship, the Bismarck.

Less than a month ago, Prime Minister Winston Churchill informed—

British Drive Against Japs In Imphal Sector

Report Indicates Heavy Attacks Force Japanese To Give Ground

By VINCENT DE SILVA
(U.S.S. Staff Correspondent)

SOUTHEAST ASIA COMMAND HEADQUARTERS, Kandy, Ceylon, April 21.—Veteran British troops of the 14th army, lashing out at the Japanese in a series of heavy counter-attacks, were reported pressing forward today northeast of Imphal with the initiative in the fighting firmly in their hands.

Striking soon after dark, British and Indian units had smashed the enemy siege around Kohima, some 60 miles to the north, the jungle-war Tommies struck the Japanese with such fury that, according to last-minute reports from the front, they still have been unable to recover their balance.

Enemy Flee
A heavy infantry drive, made behind a screen of tanks in the wake of tremendous air and artillery barrages, thoroughly unnerved the enemy who fled at top speed, leaving suicide squads behind to slow down the allied advance. Isolated snipers fell back upon their familiar tactics of firing at the British troops from the trees while others, armed with machine-guns, fought from behind hastily-constructed barricades.

British sappers trapped one large squad in a concealed pit, lowered an ignited oil drum into the position and set fire to the surrounding underbrush. Enemy troops who survived the ordeal "gave up their position and ran," front dispatches reported.

Within northern Burma other allied legions pressed on to score new victories.

Artillery Fire Is Increased In Cassino Area

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN
(U.S.S. Staff Correspondent)

NAPLES, April 21.—Intensified artillery duelling in the Cassino area of the Fifth Army's main Italian front flared today, when German batteries increased their firepower south of the bomb-devastated town.

While the Nazis stepped up their artillery and mortar fire "slightly" in this area, to the north of Cassino big guns and mortars of the Fifth army became—in the words of a headquarters announcement—"very active."

The German batteries fired more propaganda leaflets into Allied lines in the Cassino sector and near Terelle, while the United Nations artillery trained their guns on an enemy observation post three miles northeast of Biagio and inflicted casualties on the Nazis.

Off-Shore Protection
Off the Anzio beachhead, an American destroyer provided off-shore protection for the Anglo-American invasion forces. The U. S. warships intercepted four German E-boats.

Bombers Devastate Rail Lines, Ports North Of Rome

NAPLES, April 21.—(U.S.S.)—Heavy and medium bombers of the Mediterranean Air Force, in a day of more than 2,000 sorties mostly against enemy communication lines in Italy, were credited today with wreaking devastation on key ports and rail lines north of Rome.

An official headquarters communique, said railway yards and bridges at Fano and Ancona were "well covered" by bombs.

The raids on Ancona and Fano were tied up with assaults on bridges over the Tagliamento river at Casarsa.

HOW HUMAN TORPEDOES STRIKE

They seem to have dropped from the pages of Jules Verne, but very real indeed are Neptune's fearless sea-going rough riders, who straddle a torpedo as a cowboy straddles a broncho and ride it to its destination. And here, in a series of sketches, is the story of what the British dace-devils do and how they do it. The human torpedoes are sufficiently small to penetrate the enemy's net defenses, and did just that (1) when they sneaked under water in the harbor of Palermo to blow up a transport. They approach the ship's hull (2) after diving under the water. The two-man crews fix the warheads (3) of their torpedoes to the bottom of the boat and set time fuses. Then they slip away again on their electrically driven cylinders (4) which are now minus the "heads" as the ship blows up.

Get Ready For Paper Collection Here Saturday

City-Wide Salvage Effort To Be Made Tomorrow—Do Your Part

Saturday, April 22 is the day and the time is from one o'clock in the afternoon until the job is finished, the job of collecting the waste paper to be found in homes of New Castle and the adjoining townships. It is the day to clean out your cellar or attic and help relieve some of the worst war shortages.

Paper is needed in a hundred or more ways for the war effort. Containers for ammunition, small equipment, foodstuffs, these are but a few of the needs for paper products. Getting wood pulp to the paper mills has been cut down due to man power shortages and the government must rely upon waste paper to be processed into paper products containers.

Put It On Curb
Householders are asked to gather their waste newspapers, magazines, and card board containers well before noon Saturday and put the bundles on the curb. Bundle newspapers together, magazines in another bundle and flatten out the cardboard containers. Make bundles no more than 15 pounds in size and be sure they are tied with stout string.

Huge Massing Of Ships In British Waters Reported

LONDON, April 21.—(U.S.S.)—The greatest concentration of ships since Dunkerque—including British, American, French and other Allied vessels—was reported massing in British home waters, the German radio said today in its latest outbreak of invasion bluffs.

London is becoming more and more deserted by British, United States and Colonial troops," added the enemy broadcast, heard by Reuters.

"Every day now, troop trains are leaving London stations taking men to channel ports and ports on the east and south coasts."

New Problem Is Faced By Reich

LONDON, April 21.—(U.S.S.)—Nazi Germany today faced the problem of how to continue full war production with only half of her former available supply of chrome as a result of the action of the Turkish government in halting the export of that vital material to the Reich.

Authoritative sources in London pointed out that the Reich now must depend on mines in Yugoslavia and Greece, from which even the small normal shipments are cut by the activities of saboteurs and guerrillas.

Day Raids Follow Up Huge Night Attacks By Record Number Of Planes

CITY OF COLOGNE AGAIN HAMMERED

BULLETIN
(International News Service)
LONDON, April 21.—With German fighter opposition encountered for the first time in weeks in that particular area, hundreds of American light bombers attacked military targets in northern France this afternoon.

By CHARLES A. SMITH
(U.S.S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, April 21.—"Numerous" formations of Allied bombers battered the Nazi-dominated continent today on the heels of night raids by more than 1,100 RAF bombers which poured an estimated 4,480 tons of explosives on four vital rail centers of Germany, Belgium and France.

Main target of the night assault, which the London Evening Star said probably was "on a scale with" the 1,480-ton raid of Tuesday, was the devastated city of Cologne. Good results were achieved in this assault, as well as against the other three vital communications centers serving the invasion-threatened northwestern coast of Europe.

Greatest Operation
Other evening newspapers were hailing the night raids as the RAF's "greatest single operation by four-engine planes."

With yesterday's American Air Force raids the night operations brought to 3,000 planes which softened the German west wall within the span of eight hours.

Some quarters expressed the belief that last night's bombardment may have been the "largest" ever dropped on enemy targets. Besides Cologne, the Paris, Berlin and Brussels areas were hit.

Other circles estimated that 15,000 tons of explosives were dropped by approximately 9,000 Allied planes during the last four days. More than 12,000 Anglo-American war planes carried out sorties against the continent during the past week, according to unofficial estimates.

Raid Other Cities
While the Lancasters slashed at the German City of Cologne, setting fires visible for 200 miles, other Royal Air Force planes raided rail cities in Belgium, France and as far into Germany as Berlin itself.

The air war against northern Europe continued into daylight today with speedy Spitfires attacking "military objectives" in north France.

An International News Service observer in the Folkestone area said Marauder medium bombers.

There are those who like golf for their leisure time and others who read or who sleep, but I'm addicted to smooth running streams where the water is never too deep. A birchwood canoe and a book and a day when the sun really shines, that's the time to get going on some shaded stream, and never mind tackle or line. Just drifting along with the current's vague whims, to me that's a barrel of fun, of course I don't own a canoe but you see, I can dream, weather's seventy-one.

Washington Roundup

(International News Service)

The manpower situation bounces back into Washington headlines today with congress and industry rebuffing renewed demands of the armed forces for national service legislation. The house military affairs committee calls on the war department to lower physical draft standards and induct 4-Ps for non-combat work if they don't enter war jobs out announces it will not consider manpower legislation at this time.

In politics, high new dealers who believe President Roosevelt must run for a fourth term, declare he has made no choice as yet of a running mate for the '44 campaign. This leaves Vice President Wallace with a chance of again being Mr. Roosevelt's fellow nominee.

OPA announces point values for lamb but a spokesman terms as "wild guessing" reports that butter value will be reduced by half and pork will be made ration-free. Removal of fats and oils from the ration list will have no effect on the fats salvage program, OPA says, and dealers will continue to pay four cents and two red points per pound for kitchen fats. In another home-front development, the nation's coal-buying habits are now undergoing drastic revisions tantamount to rationing.

The mass sedition trial is heading into new turmoil with one defense lawyer announcing he will file in the court of appeals today a petition for a mandamus order to stay proceedings pending inquiry by the appeal court.

Criticizes U. S. For Failure To Support League

Prime Minister Churchill Makes Statements In House Of Commons Today

By JOHN W. JARRELL
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, April 21.—A sharp criticism of the United States for alleged failure to aid in preventing the present war by denying support to the League of Nations after the last one was voiced in the House of Commons by Prime Minister Winston Churchill today.

Concluding a far-reaching two-day debate on domestic problems, the prime minister said the period between the first and second world wars.

"We have great responsibilities for the part we played... So have the Americans for not making the League of Nations a reality—for not backing its principles with effective armed force."

Under the terms of the Atlantic Charter, Churchill said, Great Britain and her dominions will retain fullest liberties as regards imperial preference in international economy "to create a more harmonious flow of trade in the immediate post-war years."

"At my first meeting with the president of the United States," he said, "I asked the insertion of the following words in the Atlantic Charter, which can be read in that document, 'with due respect for their existing obligations.' These are limiting words."

"They were inserted for the express purpose of retaining to this house and to the dominions fullest possible rights and liberties over the question of imperial preference."

"Again in February, 1942, I did not agree to article seven of the mutual aid agreement without having previously obtained from the president definite assurance that we were no more committed to the abolition of imperial preference than the American government was committed to abolition of their protective tariffs."

and sank one of the Nazi craft. In addition another of the speedy enemy vessels was probably damaged, and the others driven off.

Although the lower Garigliano river sector was, for the most part, quiet with only little infantry activity and slight artillery action, the German big guns on the Adriatic end of the trans-peninsular line were more active. The Nazis shelled the British Eighth army positions at Ortona, but caused few casualties.

Three miles to the north, however, the British artillery "engaged" enemy positions and observers saw the Germans break and run for cover.

ed the United States that a great British naval fleet had been placed at his disposal.

He has always stated that units of the British navy would be transferred to the far east as rapidly as they became available. Now, that transfer in sizeable portions has become a fact.

Major Burma Offensive
The Sabang assault almost without doubt shows that Lord Louis Mountbatten is prepared for major offensive action against Burma and the Malayan peninsula after the coming monsoon is over. It tells us in the United States that, in conjunction with those east Asia offensive plans, Mountbatten has already amassed a considerable portion of the naval strength needed for such assaults.

Heretofore it has been generally conceded that the Japanese, from their great former British base at Singapore and the Andaman Islands, have definitely held naval control of the eastern half of the Bay of Bengal. Today we may be certain that such Japanese naval control has ceased to exist. Furthermore the British armada has written an invitation to the Nipponese war lords to send out their fleets and attempt to hold that eastern Bay of Bengal control.

In the future, great allied naval squeeze attack against any Japanese will be possible. Admiral Nimitz can assault from the east, Admiral Mountbatten from the west. The combination should force the Nipponese war fleets into battle in the not far distant future.

something," Count Sforza told International News Service. "We all gave up a little in forming it, and we all gained much in unity."

"We are on our way toward a second renaissance," said Groce. The Democratic Liberals, who constituted Badoglio's previous government, were ousted from all important places, retaining only two undersecretariats. Both of these places are filled by non-political technicians.

Badoglio Foreign Minister

In addition to the premiership, Badoglio holds the foreign ministry and by subordination of the new cabinet is given liberty to retain his former ministers of war, navy and air force.

Badoglio scored another victory in gaining permission to name as finance minister a close associate—Quinto Quattieri, a technical banking expert who is president of the Bank of Calabria, the largest financial organization in southern Italy.

Italians were given the ministry of justice and undersecretariats in the ministry of industry and the presidency council. The Action Party received an under-secretaryship in the ministry of the interior in addition to two first-line cabinet posts, while the Christian Democrats were given the ministry of the interior and under-secretariats in the education and industry ministries.

Socialists are represented in the ministries of industry and the interior, while Communists and Labor Democrats received various scattered posts.

successes. A large Chinese army detachment occupied the village of Mungahatung just east of the Mogau river and encircled an entire Japanese division, estimated at some 15,000 men.

(Domei, the Japanese propaganda agency, again claimed that Nippon's forces have captured Kohima and quoted one of its correspondents as alleging that he entered the city April 15. The dispatch was heard in London.

The Berlin radio, heard by CBS in New York, also claimed that the Japanese have taken Kohima and asserted that the allies now are "stubbornly" resisting an attack five miles to the northwest.

garding ground action at Sevastopol, where two Russian armies are tightening their siege of the Kay naval base of the Crimea, however, so successful was the air and sea blockade of the port that a special announcement was released dealing with the operations of the Black Sea fleet air arm.

While warships prowled offshore of the strategic peninsula, and at least one heavy cruiser moved in to shell the docks of Sevastopol, torpedo and dive bombers smashed enemy convoys trying to stage a "Nazi Dunkerque." Four ships, totaling 15,000 tons, were sunk along with an escorting small warship.

Vessels Sunk

The "constant blows" being dealt the Nazi convoys both in port and on the open sea resulted in heavy damage to four other ships and many other small craft. Unofficial Moscow quarters said 10 other vessels were sunk in Sevastopol harbor.

In the Stanislawow sector of pre-war Poland, enemy tank-paced infantry columns exerted "relentless" pressure on the Russians from two sides. According to the official announcement, "violent" day-long battles raged with Red army tanks and artillery continually repulsing the Nazi attacks and "playing havoc with their formations."

"In one sector, a battalion of Hitlerites broke into our positions but was encircled and wiped out to a man," said the bulletin, which told of 1,500 other Nazis dying in this area.

manders, failing to obtain permission to withdraw, dared not retreat from their positions even to positions which might have given them an advantage," declared Rogov.

He cited as a vivid example of this the German "innovation" in strategy, the debacle suffered by the 16th Nazi Division north of Nikopol, followed by the total destruction of the reinforced remnants of the 16th at Shirokye.

Nazi Explanation

When General Holidt, commander of the Sixth German Army, ordered a detailed explanation of the destruction of this hapless division, the unit commander is said to have replied:

"If we could have withdrawn only a mile and a half and taken better positions, the battle might not have been lost."

Despite the apparent ease with which the Nazis were defeated in the southern Ukraine, Rogov declared the conquest was the "most honorable but most difficult task" the Third Army has undertaken.

Forced crossing of four major rivers—the Dnieper, Bug, Dniester and Prut—at their widest points, as well as operations over terrain often turned into waist-deep quagmires of slush and mud, contributed greatly to the difficulties encountered by the Russians.

more deserted by British, American and colonial troops.

Every day now, troop trains are leaving London stations, taking men to channel ports on the east and south coasts.

And another broadcast reported similarly huge naval concentrations in the Mediterranean. Sandwiched in was an entirely unsubstantiated claim that German torpedos and bombing planes had successfully attacked a great allied convoy, sinking four freighters totalling 30,000 tons, one tanker of 8,000 tons and two destroyers.

Orders of Hitler

The tremendous emphasis now being laid by the German propaganda ministry upon the allied invasion schedule stems directly from orders issued by Adolf Hitler.

Every one of the 10,000 or more press and radio stories on the secret payroll of Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels has been instructed to subordinate German reverses on the Russian front and devote all time and effort to impressing the Nazi populations and the oppressed peoples of the occupied countries with the ever-growing dangers to the west.

For this reason, the first news of actual attack may come from German-controlled radio stations, and any one of the numerous "feints and rehearsals" predicted by Prime Minister Winston Churchill may be manifested into a real invasion attempt and then branded for propaganda purposes as a failure.

It is reported that quite a number of the congregation of the Finnish Lutheran church, South Ray street, were on hand for several days this week and have done a splendid job of spring cleaning of the grounds surrounding their church. Rev. Arvi Henry Saarilu, the pastor, his wife, men, women and children, all worked enthusiastically.

GRIFFITHS-DUNLAP JR. EVENING CHURCH EVENT

At a lovely ceremony at the First Presbyterian church on Thursday evening, Miss Margaret Olivia Griffiths, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Griffiths of West Washington street, became the bride of Jack M. Dunlap Jr., lieutenant, U. S. Army Air Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dunlap of Court street. The ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock in the presence of a crowd of guests that filled the church auditorium to capacity.

Altar embankment was of palms and ferns, flanked by two lighted seven-branched candelabra and two tall vases of white snapdragons. An organ recital preceding the ceremony was played by Garth Edmondson, Dr. J. J. McVaine, pastor of the church, officiated and was assisted by Rev. W. A. Thornton, pastor Epworth Methodist church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a hoop-skirt gown of white net and tulle with a high neck and sleeves puffed at the top and fitted below, pointed at the wrist. Her fingertip length veil was held at the sides with clusters of orange blossoms. She carried a white mull encircled with orchids and wore a locket that was her great-grandmother's. She also carried a lace handkerchief sent to her from Mexico by Mrs. Sam Brenner. In her shoe was tucked a 104-year-old penny.

Miss Marguerite Mullen attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a gown of yellow marquisette made with a long full skirt and a ruffled belt yoke. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses and carnations with a touch of pink. Bridesmaids Miss Grace Dunlap, sister of the groom, Mrs. J. Kenneth Atkinson and Mrs. Robert Griffiths, all wore gowns the same style as that of the maid of honor, but of pale pink marquisette. Their colonial bouquets were of pink roses and daisies with a touch of yellow. All the attendants wore bonnet headresses to match their gowns.

The bridegroom had his father as best man. Ushers were Robert Griffiths, Roy Meehan, George Stutzinger and Joseph Johnston.

Soloist was Gula Keay, who sang two selections, "Still of the Night" and "I Love Thee," preceding the ceremony.

Following the ceremony the bridal party received guests in the vestibule of the church. Later there was a reception for 100 guests in the coral room of The Castleton. Out-of-town guests were from Buffalo, N. Y., Warren, O., Chicago, Ill., Alliquipp, Youngstown and Butler.

Mrs. Dunlap graduated with a degree in health education from Slippery Rock State Teachers college and received a master of education degree from the University of Pittsburgh. She has been director of physical education at Benjamin Franklin junior high school.

FOOD CHALLENGE OF YEAR

THE popular song, "Spring Will Be a Little Late This Year," hardly comes under the head of news. Restiveness about the slow advance of the season has been fairly general. And spring's delay has important aspects.

The Washington weather bureau has reported that Midwestern and Eastern farmers, already hindered by labor and machinery shortages, are at least two weeks behind in their spring soil preparations and planting schedules because of excessively wet weather.

While emphasizing the delay in planting operations, caused by frequent rains, the weather service points out that somewhat similar conditions prevailed at the same time last year. Crop production in 1943 was considerably above the average but below the 1942 aggregate. Crop prospects adversely affected by spring rains this year include spring wheat, oats and barley, reported to be three weeks late in the East Central plains region.

Perhaps the worst inclement spring weather is about over, but no point will be served by wishful thinking about better weather in relation to food prospects. The actual situation presents a challenge to American resourcefulness, for more food will be needed than hitherto in the war.

Farmers who came through and delivered last year will have to do even better with patriotic contribution of their indispensable services, even to the point, in many cases, of planting less profitable but more badly needed crops. The annual appeal to the nation's Victory gardeners, as well as part-time farm helpers, already has gone out.

The soil of America has been richly endowed and it has been spared the blighting ravages of conflict. The nation's bread and that of much struggling humanity depends on active appreciation the nation as a whole brings to the solution of the wartime food problem.

TO SMASH WHAT HITLER STANDS FOR

Adolf Hitler, who announced on his 56th birthday in 1939 that he would rather wage war than at 55, arrived this week at that later milestone. He had nothing to say.

But Goebbels and Goering carried the ball for him. Goebbels in a speech, the Fat Boy in an order of the day. Of course, they summoned the German people to stick to the Fuehrer through thick and thin. Said Goering, "Our gift to the Fuehrer is our vow not to lay down our arms until we have assured the Reich's future."

Both spoke of dark hours and great dangers, with the assurance that Hitler will see them through. Let us not delude ourselves that such appeals will prove ineffectual.

To us, Adolf Hitler may be a screeching lunatic with a silly moustache. But for more than ten years the German people have followed him blindly and there is no reason to believe that most of them won't continue to do so. They're all in this horror-ridden war as deeply as he is.

It is they who have to be beaten, whatever vows they may have registered. Then Hitler or any murderous plotter they may later set up in his place won't matter.

CIVILIAN DEPRIVATION

The news that the government has further limited civilian goods production undoubtedly will prove unwelcome not only to business men who are suffering economically through such restrictions, but also to millions of civilians who had hoped to obtain the products whose manufacture now is limited.

While it is not easy to offer solace to a person almost driven out of business by war or to make easier the path of the civilian inconvenienced by inability to obtain products which are regarded as commonplace in peacetime, it is possible for the civilians affected to compare their own fate with that of the boys who are fighting this war in the air, under the sea, in the mountains and in the jungles.

A dissatisfied civilian might also ponder the amount of fighting which is yet to be done in order to bring victory. Australia's army minister, Francis E. Forde, in speaking of the war in the Pacific, said recently that Japan has thrown only 5 per cent of her army against British, Australian and American forces, and that the Allies still must meet and defeat the other 95 per cent and "practically the whole Japanese navy."

He asserted that since the Americans took the offensive in the Pacific, between 10 and 12 Japanese divisions have been destroyed or isolated, a small proportion of the total Japanese armed forces, represented as numbering 10,000,000.

No one who has observed the tenacity with which the Germans stick to the business of warfare can arrive at the conclusion that the invasion of Europe will be a pushover or that the war in Europe will be concluded soon. As the terrific aerial bombardment of German cities, at a price costly to the Allies, fails to crack Nazi morale, it can be presumed that the German army, still a great force, must be defeated on the ground.

Danish Nazi sent to an asylum. Is that a build-up for Hitler's insanity defense?

Remember the good old days when you drank sassafras tea in the spring instead of Vitamin B complex?

One thing which can be said for Mr. Wilkie is that he isn't one of those guys who don't know they have had enough.

Some of the best unconscious humor we have run across lately is the editorial analysis by European newspapers of the Wisconsin primary.

The marauder bomber losses were only one-half of one per cent in 16,000 sorties. That's better than the average pedestrian record in the United States.

Pacific Coast professors stress the undoubted need for more study of American history. And there is a lot more to it to study than there was when we were in school.

Washington Calling

By MARQUIS CHILDS

Bears Campaign Brunt

WASHINGTON, April 21.—One individual, more than any other, will bear the brunt of the bitterness certain to be aroused by the fourth term campaign. That is Eleanor Roosevelt.

Against the president some moderation may be used since he is commander-in-chief in war time. The Roosevelt boys are in active military service, so they are not open to attack. The president's wife is defenseless.

Already it has begun. Senator Truman of Missouri called on the White House for an official denial of a report sent in by one of his constituents that Mrs. Roosevelt had four cars and used 2,000 gallons of gas a month.

A phony "30 cent dollar" is being circulated on which Mrs. Roosevelt's picture has been substituted for that of Washington. Writing paper is available on which large and unattractive pictures of the president and his wife are printed with the caption beneath, "no fourth term for either."

It attended a Republican meeting in Oklahoma which was opened by the chairman with the reading of a poem called "The Lady, Eleanor," a parody of Poe's "The Raven."

It seemed to please the audience more than Governor Brickner's attack on the New Deal.

Would Be Her Decision

The irony is that if Mrs. Roosevelt were to make the decision, I do not think the president would run again. With friends who have raised the subject she has expressed the fear that if he were to be elected with a hostile congress, the tragedy of 1919 and 1920 might be re-enacted with even more disastrous consequences for the world.

In the life of this woman of character, there are many ironies. She has recently been roundly abused for her visit to servicemen in war areas in the Caribbean.

She went at her husband's insistence. In her own mind was a question as to whether the good she might do would be outweighed by the attacks that, as she well knew, such a trip would call forth.

The charge was promptly made the first lady was using gasoline which might have been given to the war effort.

In the plane in which she flew to the Caribbean other passengers—military personnel—were carried as well as mail. Both military and diplomatic officials here say that Mrs. Roosevelt's trip was of great value.

As she has long since learned, the truth has no relation to the attacks directed at her. So she is more or less philosophic. The spouting of sewer politics, which produces unprintable comments on the first lady, disturbs her very little. Fourth terms or no fourth terms, she will continue on much the same course she has followed in the past.

One Exception

One exception to the above should be noted. The issue about which Mrs. Roosevelt feels most strongly is race discrimination. If she were not the wife of the president, she would take a stronger and more active stand in this field. That is the only limitation she has accepted.

If she would leave the White House in January, she would get a job. It would be her hope to continue writing "My Day." Her opinions, as a private citizen, would be expressed more forthrightly in her column than they are now.

It is just here that Mrs. Roosevelt either fails to understand or refuses to recognize the attitude of millions of Americans. She has insisted on her right to her own life even in the White House.

But many and this has been one of the chief sources of the hostility toward her, have refused to make the distinction between First Lady and private citizen. The feeling in the south, where the racial issue is aflame, is particularly bitter. Good Democrats say, "Well, she's brought it on herself."

All that is, of course, so irrelevant to the issues of our time. It is one of the unhappy aspects of the fourth term—unhappy for the First Lady and for the country.

WHY SHE CLEANS HOUSE

Man, the collector, gathers things. Old papers, books and magazines. Nail, bolts and nuts and piston rings.

And ancient prints of various scenes: Worn trousers, shirts and caps and shoes.

Which he insists he'll some day use.

His wife, the duster, comes along. "Now out with all this stuff!" she cries.

"He thinks he wants it, but he's wrong. He'll keep such rubbish till he dies."

"This time to clean! Get rid of this! There's nothing here he'll ever miss."

Always the merry month of May. Renew the family dispute. The wife would sell or give away. The husband's long discarded suit. The man says: "No! I think I may."

Go back to it some rainy day!

Tis well that woman fair can see. A little clearer than a man. Of what tomorrow's need will be. And what for it to save and plan.

For stuff all husbands beg to keep. Would soon make of home a rubbish heap.

HINTS AND DINTS

Sun sets tonight 7:47. Sun rises tomorrow 6:09.

These days it seems people go after things that are harder to get.

This would be a very happy world if people would always wear the expressions they do when they are having their pictures taken.

It will be a long time before people will be able to get a new automobile we are told. That's the best reason for taking good care of the one you have.

The fellows who pay as they go don't go out much.

Luncheon to a woman is whatever she is able to crowd on a lettuce leaf.

About all a fellow is able to accumulate these days are the things he takes for granted.

Hens are helping win the war. They are laying more eggs now than ever before.

It isn't what's on a man, but what's in him, that is the true standard of measuring him.

Every big business man starts in an attic or a cellar.

There's one little satisfaction when a man falls sick, it makes his wife repent of all her ill treatment of him. Don't work the game too often, however.

In Pennsylvania plans are being made to make it easy for the soldiers to vote. That's right.

Grief starts on the surface, but when it bores into the soul it's agony.

Marine: "Say, whatever became of those old-fashioned girls who fainted when a Marine kissed them?"

Girl: "Huh! Whatever became of the old-fashioned Marine who could make them faint?"

You can take my word for it that... the boss of the family is not the one who gets blamed when the family flashlight is lost.

A rather seedy looking farmer entered the men's furnishings store and asked: "What's your time?"

"Why, twenty minutes after five," replied the astonished salesman. "What can I do for you?"

"I want them pants," said the farmer, leading the way to the window and pointing to a ticket marked: "Given away at 5:20."

The problem of youth is to remember, of age, to forget.

There is no incentive like hunger to make a person think.

A short sentence is remembered longest.

The new cut in gasoline coupons is called an "equalization" move... and now we wonder what the gasoline used by Eleanor on her bomber flights from hither to you is called.

And then there was the lady motorist who went into a grocery store and asked for a set of tire chains and was so annoyed when the clerk said, "I'm sorry but we haven't any." You see, the lady understood it was a chain store.

Influence is a funny thing. The man with the most uses it the least.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

HAPPY FAMILIES

Today I want to tell you of some lovely parent-child relationships I have observed. Now and then as Mrs. Myers and I go about the United States to confer with groups of parents on their problems, with special reference to wartime, we are invited to dine or take tea in some families where there are growing children.

Although this uses up considerable energy, it is delightful and educative to us. No doubt such invitations must often come from the mother who feels pretty sure her family is a fairly happy one. Anyway, I have been guest in a good many lovely families scattered throughout the United States.

1. We lunched with parents and their two daughters, 7, 5, father a clergyman. Both children talked freely and conversed with us but neither one talked too much. The table conversation was within their reach and experience. The parents did not interrupt the children once nor look anxious as the youngsters talked.

2. Immediately after our arrival at another home, the nine-year-old son took us to another room to show us his chemical set and workshop and demonstrated a few of his experiments. The parents didn't follow or show concern. He visited with us in a very natural way for several minutes and went off to play.

3. A parent had us drop in before a meeting to see the children—a girl 9 and a boy 14 who talked without parents butting in, of their many cherished experiences and interests, showed us non-running games they played with their parents or playmates. Also they and their parents demonstrated a card game they often played using a card table, though they said they usually played it on the floor.

4. At dinner with two other guests, we were served by a high school daughter whose older sister and parents are with us, this older sister leaving after dinner to return to college. Both daughters visited with us briefly before dinner then helped their mother finish the dinner preparations. The father, the daughter took charge in the kitchen as the guests and parents left for a meeting.

5. Arriving in a family who had a girl 12, boy 10, girl 8, we found all of them helping their mother prepare the dinner. Each child spent some time before dinner conversing with Mrs. Myers and me. The older girl helped her mother serve and after dinner did the dishes, with aid of a neighbor girl. The mother informed me of the regular daily jobs of each child and special cleaning jobs of each on Saturday. The father and son showed us the workshop in which they made many things. Each child in turn came to bed at the proper time. It was a family of harmony, freedom and companionship. As I point out in my bulletin, "How to Teach Child to Help at Home" to be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to me at 235 East 45th Street, New York City. It's the good parent-child relationship which brings best results.

6. Solving Parent Problems

Q. Have you a bulletin on undesirable sex habits in young children?

A. Yes; to be had for postage by writing me at 235 East 45th Street, New York City, enclosing a self-addressed envelope with a three-cent stamp on it.

7. Health Talks

By DR. W. A. WOMER, City Health Superintendent

APPLE PIE

Apple pie is a very popular article of food in America. It looks good and tastes good. It is good when cold in the lunch box or when served hot at the table.

It is very nourishing. When a pie is cut in six pieces, each piece is worth about 300 calories. The most of the nourishment is in the crust but the apples put the pep in it. The sugar adds some too.

Apples are a lot of foods which do not have much nutriment themselves, but they may help the appetite and enable us to eat more of the plainer foods.

Apples are not very rich in nourishment, but who would want to eat an apple pie without the apples. A real pie fan likes pie for breakfast.

Dixie Democrats Boosting Alben Barkley

Want Kentucky Senator For Vice President

Legislative Jam Before July Deadlock Seen

By HELEN ESSARY

(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 21.—A definite movement now is in full swing behind the scenes by certain "deep south" Democrats to replace Henry Wallace with Senate Majority Leader Alben Barkley as President Roosevelt's fourth-term running mate.

There is little doubt that the Kentucky, facing a stiff fight for reelection in his home state, would consent to be "drafted" as vice presidential candidate.

Wallace is extremely unpopular in the south. Nomination of a southerner to run with the president would make the party leaders there happy.

Not that the solid south is in danger of going Republican—for all the traditionally Democratic southern states seem certain to remain in the Roosevelt column.

But the border states are in doubt and among them is Kentucky.

Best bet is that Wallace will be named to a diplomatic post in Latin America—likely Mexico, or Brazil—to clear the path for a southern nominee.

And Barkley—grown in legislative and executive ranks and break with the New Deal over the tax veto message—appears a possibility to run with the president.

Legislative Action Slow

Congress is in a fair way to get into a legislative jam in the next few months. Numerous important bills must be passed before July 1, and thus far there is no evidence they will be disposed of speedily.

Aside from the bill extending expiring price and wage control laws, nearly all the annual appropriation bills still have to be passed before July 1. Then there is the bill to extend the Lend-Lease act, which also expires at midnight, June 30.

The score to date in three months of the present session, so far as deadline bills are concerned, is one regular annual appropriation measure passed, the House bill for the non-dollar Treasury-Post Office bill.

Still to be passed are Navy and Army supply bills, the Independent Offices bill, war agencies appropriations, and the agriculture department measure.

The first three months of the session were consumed for the great part in a feud with the administration. The soldiers' vote bill was the principal issue.

But the explosion over the president's veto message on the tax bill jolted the administration into an appeasement policy toward Congress, so that one source of friction has been removed.

The Senate probably will take up the Anti-Poll Tax bill sometime next week. Southern senators, in the minority, intend to filibuster it to death.

Reconversion Planned

The Price and Wage Control Extension bill still is in the hearing stage. Republicans have said they would revive the consumer subsidy issue, so another fight is in prospect.

All this points to a legislative jam—with Republicans wanting to get out of Washington by June 15 for the Republican national convention in Chicago.

Donald M. Nelson, War Production Board chairman, left for a vacation in Florida, with plans virtually completed for streamlining his agency to handle reconversion of industry to peacetime production.

It appears Charles E. Wilson, executive vice chairman of WPB, will be running the reconversion committee, but it is understood that Nelson is keeping a few of the strings in his own hands.

The plan calls for strengthening existing industry advisory committees, of which WPB has several hundred, in line with recommendations of the Baruch reconversion report.

Five Million Migrate In U. S.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Some 5,000,000 persons migrated to other sections of the country from April 1940 through last October, the Office of War Information reported.

It is said in a survey based on information from the Census Bureau,
Selective Service, War Manpower

Commission and War Production
Board that 9,500,000 men and 134-
000 women joined the armed forces.
Births totalled 9,604,000 and deaths 4,993,000 for a net decrease in the civilian population of some 4,000-000, or 3.1 per cent.

President William McKinley was of Highland Scottish descent, but before settling in York county,

Paternity Suit Against Flynn Has Fizzled Out

HOLLYWOOD, April 21.—(INS)—
Mrs. Shirley Evans Hassau's paternity suit against swashbuckling screen star Errol Flynn fizzled out Thursday.

When it was called for trial in superior court, no one appeared for either party and the suit was put "off calendar."

"As far as we are concerned,
there is no suit," said Robert E.
Ford, attorney for Flynn. "Flynn has not been served with a summons, as required, in any suit since Mrs. Hassau's first complaint was dismissed on a demurrer."

Ford emphatically denied a rumor that a settlement had been made with Mrs. Hassau, adding "and there won't be any settlement."

Mrs. Hassau brought suit last fall claiming Flynn was the father of her 3-year-old daughter Marilyn, without benefit of matrimony. She claimed their interlude followed a meeting in a Hollywood night spot.
Flynn denied it.

1944 edition of the "Yankee Doodle

in the Cathedral Friday evening,
April 28, for members of the Valley of New Castle Consistory, the

The entertainment will be followed by a picture, dancing and lunch, and an hour of fellowship, the entertainment committee promises.

Members are asked to make reservations this week, so that the committee will know how many to prepare for. Over 500 reservations have already been received. Secretary Russell C. Melvin stated today, indicating a record attendance.

Supreme Court Reverses Award

PHILADELPHIA, April 21.—(INS)—
The Pennsylvania supreme court on Thursday reversed a $32,000 award against the Pennsylvania railroad, which the Allegheny county court had ruled was responsible for the drowning of four children.

The children—Mary Kustro, 8;
John, Jr., 7; Peter, 5, and Anna, 3—were drowned when they fell thru ice on a pond in the Little Sewickley creek valley section of Westmoreland county on March 23, 1941.

A blocked culvert under the railroad tracks caused the pond to form.
The culvert had been choked-up for two years before the children drowned.

DUNCAN-PUGH WEDDING IS 'OPEN CHURCH' EVENT

Miss Edna Duncan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Duncan, Forest Hills, Ellwood City, and P. C. Edward A. Pugh of Port Dix, New Jersey, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Pugh of Hillcrest avenue, this city, were united in marriage at a pretty "open church" ceremony here on Wednesday evening, April 19 in the First Congregational church.

In the presence of a large gathering of guests, the couple pledged vows, with Rev. Thomas J. Jones, pastor, reading the candlelight service at 8:45 o'clock. For the occasion, the altar was beautifully embanked with ferns and palms.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a poudre blue wool suit with darker blue accessories. Her corsage was gardenias. Mrs. Don Walker of Indiana, Pa., and Miss Marian Sibley of this city, were her attendants. The former selected a delph blue suit with matching accessories and gardenia shoulder corsage. The latter appeared in a dusty rose suit, and matching accessories. Her shoulder bouquet harmonized.

Cpl. Don Walker of Indiana, at present stationed at Fort Dix, N. J., and C. Spavanest of the U. S. Merchant Marines, attended the bridegroom.

Appropriate nuptial music was contributed by Mrs. John Evans, organist, preceding and during the ceremony.

Following a congratulatory period in the church, a reception was held at the Pugh residence for guests numbering approximately one hundred.

Later, P. C. and Mrs. Pugh left on a trip points East. Upon returning, she will reside with her mother for the present, and continue her work in Ellwood City.

P. C. Pugh will report to his post on Wednesday. Prior to entering the U. S. Service, he was associated with Curtis-Wright at Beaver.

We-By Club

Members of We-By club were pleasantly entertained Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Ralph Lemson, Highland Heights, with bridge as the pastime. Mrs. Deiter Seeger, Mrs. Delbert Houston and Mrs. Charles Will captured the honor score prizes.

In serving lunch, the hostess was aided by Mrs. James Ingham.

Next meeting in two weeks, will be with Mrs. Seeger, Point Place.

Central Christian Choir

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Frost, of Electric street, entertained members of the Central Christian church choir at their home Thursday evening.

In serving a dainty lunch, the hostess was aided by Mrs. Ray Gosney, co-hostess.

Next meeting will be with Miss Mary Abraham, of Galbreath avenue, Thursday, May 18.

EVENING SECTION MUSICAL PROGRAM

Members of the Evening Section of the Woman's club who attended the April meeting of the club on Thursday evening at the home of Miss Barbara Schulz, Butler avenue, were an appreciative audience for the musical program that was presented.

Musical presentations were a group of songs by Chester Kyle, baritone, piano selections by Mrs. George Eberhart, a group of songs by Mrs. George Strehler, contralto, and violin numbers by Miss Kathryn Bittner.

See Accord At Coming State Special Session

HARRISBURG, April 21—(INS)—The non-partisan legislation to be sponsored at the forthcoming special session of the General Assembly designed to facilitate voting by members of the armed forces held the unanimous endorsement today of Democratic state chairman David L. Lawrence and Republican State Chairman M. Harvey Taylor. The legislators will convene May 1.

"We agreed that we are in accord on the four bills," Lawrence said after a meeting of a bi-partisan committee. "We expect to have a five-day session which will be very harmonious."

Taylor said the amendments to the absentee election laws were very liberal. "We think we have gone the whole way in order to afford everybody in the armed services the opportunity of voting," he declared.

The two party leaders explained that legislation would be introduced in the house shortly after the assembly is convened to liberalize voting procedures for members of the armed forces as well as representatives of war service agencies and to appropriate funds for the expenses of the session and the 36th annual governors' conference at Harrisburg and Hershey May 28 to 31. The cost of the four-day meeting, it was disclosed, was expected to exceed $25,000.

Armour Ideas Make the Most of Meat

Fried Armour's Star Liver Sausage on Potato Cakes! Try It!

There are so many reasons for planning more and more meals around Armour's Star Liver Sausage. First, because it's such a delicious meat—mild and "spready." Second, because it's mighty easy on your meat ration—a low-point meat. Third, because it's wonderfully nutritious—especially rich in vitamins A, B, D, and G. . . .

Here's a new recipe for a fine liver sausage main dish for dinner:

To serve five, ask your meat man for 1/2 lb. of Armour's Star Liver Sausage, cut into 5 thick slices. To make the potato cakes, use 3 cups mashed, seasoned potatoes. Mix the mashed potatoes with 1/4 cup finely chopped onions, and one egg yolk. Form into 5 patties. Fry until brown in bacon or sausage drippings. Brown the liver sausage for 2 minutes to the side and place a slice on the top of each patty just before serving.

This recipe was developed in Armour Kitchens to help you get the most enjoyment from your meat ration.

Asserts Peru Can Absorb Millions Of Immigrants

PHILADELPHIA, April 21—(INS)—The spokesman for the Peruvian delegation to the conference of the International Labor Organization said today that Peru can absorb 3½ million immigrants "within the next few years."

The only condition that was made by the Carlos A. Vidal, the employee delegate to the session was that the immigrants not be Japanese. He said Peru was willing to admit Jewish refugees "if they were technicians, or willing to work."

"Peru needs workers," Sr. Vidal said. "There is a terrific labor shortage in the country now. It can absorb immigrants to a number equal to half its present population of seven million. We do not want Japanese, however."

Sr. Vidal explained that the reason for that condition was that Peru now has "a very large Japanese colony," which he estimated at about 25,000 persons. He said the Japanese in Peru are scattered all over the country.

State Milk Raise Appears Unlikely

WASHINGTON, April 21—(INS)—OPA Administrator Chester Bowles declared today that he saw no way in which the OPA could grant a price increase in milk for Pennsylvania.

Bowles, just before attending a conference on the Keystone state milk situation with Gov. Edward Martin of Pennsylvania and other officials including economic stabilizer Fred M. Vinson, was asked if he saw any chance that OPA would grant the price increase as ordered by the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission six months ago.

"I don't see how it can be done," Bowles replied.

Dr. Stockdale To Finish Schedule

Series Of 'Soldiers Of Production' Meetings Being Concluded At Aluminum Plant

Dr. Allen A. Stockdale, here for a series of "Soldiers of Production" meetings in various industrial plants, finished his schedule this afternoon with a meeting in the plant of the Aluminum Corporation of America.

On Thursday afternoon he spoke at a meeting in the garage of the Pennsylvania Power company with about 50 employees of the company from Sharon and Greenville adding to the crowd from New Castle.

The meeting was opened with pep singing directed by Trevor West, and Dr. Stockdale was introduced by Louis B. Round, vice president and general manager of the company.

Present in the crowd were several Pennsylvania Power men who have been returned to the states after being wounded in action and, another visitor, was W. H. Hays, of the company who goes to Washington, D. C., soon to serve on the staff of Admiral E. J. King.

Dr. Stockdale's address was the usual stirring one. He congratulated the employees upon their work in backing the war effort, and their low record of absenteeism and urged them to stay in the fight with the same vigor they have shown.

JUST LIKE THAT

Lawyer—Then you admit that you struck the defendant with malice aforethought?

Defendant, indignantly—You can't mix me up like that. I've told you twice I hit him with a brick, and on purpose. There wasn't no malice, not 'nuthin' of the kind about it—just a plain brick like any gentleman would use.

among formations of Allied planes seen returning from northern France about noon.

The air ministry revealed that the Cologne raiders attacked through cloud formations, their way pointed out by Pathfinder planes.

"First reports indicate the bombing was well concentrated," said the bulletin, which added that other targets were "clearly identified."

Officially, a "great weight" of bombs was dropped by the night raiders, which included speedy Mosquito planes. The plywood craft hit at the German capital, while Intruder aircraft sowed mines in enemy waters.

In addition to the Cologne and Berlin raids, the night operations were directed also against the Ottemmies railroad yards, about 15 miles southeast of the Belgian city of Brussels; Lens in the Pas De Calais area, and Le Chapelle on the outskirts of Paris.

The London Evening Star estimated that the raids were possibly "on a scale with Tuesday night's in which 4,480 American tons of bombs fell on enemy targets."

Last night's force was one of the largest ever engaged in a single night's operations. The largest RAF figure ever mentioned was 1,130 aircraft which raided Cologne on the night of May 31, 1942.

(Meantime, the German DNB agency claimed that the raiders struck at the Montmartre quarter of Paris. Bomb craters were reported all about the vicinity of the Sacre Coeur church, with many windows of the beautiful church smashed.)

(The same agency claimed that German planes raided Hull during the night.)

Indicating that the daylight raids may be on a considerable scale, radios throughout occupied France fell silent about midday. The Nice, Lyons and Toulouse transmitters all ceased broadcasting rather abruptly.

Coastal observers said "numerous" bomber formations swept across the English channel during the morning. They were going in various directions, mostly toward objectives in northern France.

An official statement describing the assaults declared that they were carried out "in great strength" and made no secret of the fact that Cologne bore the brunt of the assault, describing the city as "one of the most important transport centers in the whole of Germany."

BATTERED RABAU AGAIN POUNDED

ish radio broadcast reporting that the "Japanese have apparently been hurriedly building new ground defenses in an effort to hold off our attacks on the vital enemy base of Rabaul."

While the Rabaul assault was under way, other aerial squadrons returned to the Nemoi Island chain within the Carolines and gave the Satawan atoll south of Truk its third successive bombardment.

Other similar formations struck twice at the enemy atoll on Woleai in the western Carolines. At least nine Japanese planes were destroyed or damaged and huge fires started in the first assault. Details of the second attack still were incomplete, but returning tail gunners said they could see fires on the enemy atoll sending smoke columns 5,000 feet into the air.

U. S. National Debt Discussed By Babson

By ROGER W. BABSON

Copyright—1944—Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.

BABSON PARK, Mass., April 21.—The U. S. is probably headed for a $300,000,000,000 debt which no one likes to think of. Yet at 2 1/2 percent interest this is not so bad if it can be gradually reduced. This interest is all paid to the people of our country. None of it leaves the U. S. A. Of every dollar received by us as interest, a certain proportion must be returned to the government as taxes. Hence in a way, the debt will be self-liquidating as well as a business stabilizer. Every cloud has a silver lining.

Stop Further Postwar Borrowing
On the other hand, we must not be too free with our money. We cannot expect to put the whole world on a New Deal. If the New Deal could not stand on its own feet here in this country, so we could not pay for it except with borrowed money, what can we do for the whole world? We are not justified in borrowing money to support millions in depressed countries with nothing back of them in industrial or farm facilities. Let us be generous with such money as we have but not go into more debt to give away more money.

Also remember that if our cost of producing goods, including farm products, continues to increase, this will harm our American workers and farmers who are the backbone of our nation. It stands to reason that we cannot keep our social gains if we try to save the rest of the world by letting them send in their cheap goods that are made with cheap labor. If we do let in these cheap goods, millions of American workers are going to be cut off of jobs. Then our war bonds could be a burden.

The Real Solution

After the peace makers get under way with their trade agreements, international bank, etc., and when unemployment is rampant because of foreign competition, and after the borrowing comes to an end, what will happen? I assume that then the New Dealers will want to start new government WPA projects to provide housing, clothing and goods for these idle workers. Yet, there is no need for this.

The alternative is to keep the cost of goods down so as to be able to meet competition during the years ahead. What is the sense of now building our costs sky-high when we know they must tumble after the war. In the meantime, the ultimate consumer will pay the bill. This will happen in spite of any labor or other organizations. Only wise investors and those engaged in active business can pass these costs along.

Things To Remember

To win the battle of production is the supreme task today of both employers and wage workers. Private enterprise must prove its real usefulness to the country at this time of crisis and demonstrate its right to survive. It is the responsibility of all groups to produce the best possible product in quantities.

as large as needed at the lowest possible cost consistent with fair wages and a fair return on money invested.

America needs a national philosophy of teamwork. For business this teamwork within each concern and teamwork with labor, competitors, the public and the government. Though alien armies may be conquered, alien philosophies can still overrun the land. Industry is one of the first targets. The true battle line is between patriotic elements in management and labor on the one hand, and the self-seeking elements on the other.

Seven Postwar Goals

1. Industry should give as much thought to building men as to producing artillery. The exploitation of human beings is the certain road to revolution. Industry must win the battle against fear, hate and greed. As America has found power to harness the forces of physical nature, so it must now learn how to harness the forces of human nature.

tur. This is God's plan for a better world.

2. We all should cease talking about the abundant life and again teach that life is struggle. Homes, schools and colleges should once more put the emphasis on sacrifice, training and the good of all. But all must be given more equal opportunities, irrespective of color or creed.

3. Fewer laws should be enacted but greater emphasis will be put upon law enforcement. Accompanied with this there should be a movement to let natural law work more freely. There will be fewer subsidies to unfortunate farmers, inefficient manufacturers and independent merchants. There, however, will be a recognition that the safety of the nations depends upon prohibiting certain commercialized evils.

4. Big cities should be decentralized. This is the only known protection against bombing places as well as against social hazards. This may be accomplished by some method of taxation that will encourage more people to live in the rural sections.

5. Voting some day should be restricted. Because one is of age, he is not necessarily entitled to vote, irrespective of character, intelligence or records. This does not mean that one must own property in order to vote; but it does mean that prospective voters should successfully pass certain fair tests to eliminate the unworthy.

6. Religion must again become a part of the nation's educational system. The church, however, will be stripped of its superstitions, dogmatism and business enterprises. Churches are due for a rude awakening, severe taxation and a general purging; but the church will come out of this more useful than ever.

7. Finally, biology and the importance of blood and soil should be given greater consideration. Those who breed and best train the most children will ultimately control. In the meantime, the autocratic countries will have become more democratic; while the democratic countries will have become more totalitarian.

HOT OFF THE GRIDDLE

NEW YORK—(INS)—Joseph Di Angelo, a private from Astoria, Queens, was revealed by the army today as one of a group of automotive welders who have made it possible for soldiers at the United States Army General Depot in England to have hot cakes for breakfast. Di Angelo and his fellow welders didn't make the griddles from salvaged metal.

Total Casualties Of U. S. 189,309

WASHINGTON, April 21—(INS)—The OWI reported Wednesday that the latest announced casualties of the United States armed forces since the outbreak of war total 189,309. The figure includes dead, wounded, missing and prisoners of war.

The War department totals, as of April 7, showed Army casualties of 145,082. This number includes 25,013 killed; 58,222 wounded; 32,048 missing, and 28,799 prisoners of war.

The Navy department totals, as of April 20, reported casualties whose next of kin have been notified amounting to 44,227. The figure was made up of 18,795 dead; 11,726 wounded; 9,282 missing, and 4,424 prisoners of war.

Of the Army wounded, 32,360 have returned to duty, the OWI report stated.

In 1715 the first lighthouse was built in America at the entrance to Boston Harbor, by the province of Massachusetts.

Unusually Low Number Of Fires

HARRISBURG, April 21—Because of snow and rain, the number of forest fires in Pennsylvania has been unusually small so far this year, according to James A. Kell, Secretary of Forests and Waters. The number of fires reported up to April 12 was 76; last year it was 640.

With warmer weather likely to lure large numbers of people outdoors for recreation, precaution against fire is particularly important. Trout season opens April 15 but, as a rule, fishermen are not responsible for forest fires, authorities point out.

AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP
NEW WILMINGTON, April 21—Eloise Lowry, Westminster senior from Rea, Pa., has been awarded a graduate scholarship to Western Reserve university, Cleveland. An English major, she will attend Western Reserve next year and work for her master's degree in English.

She is the third Westminster student to win the award in the last five years. Other recipients have been Thomas Sturgeon, New York City, and Martha Barnhill, Cleveland.

War Department Emphasizes Need For More Nurses

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.—The need for more nurses in Army Hospitals in this country and abroad is emphasized in the latest War Department announcement.

With 36,625 women serving in the Army Nurse Corps, many of them overseas, the demand for nurse officers has created a shortage of nurses in Army Hospitals in this country, particularly since many wounded have been returned to this United States as soon as they were able to be evacuated from war theaters.

Although newly appointed nurses probably will be assigned to hospitals at home, the War Department policy providing for rotation of personnel overseas for the longest periods of time, virtually guarantees most nurses an opportunity for overseas duty.

The Army's Medical Department is accepting applications from qualified registered nurses under 45 years of age with no dependents under 14 years of age. Applications are being received daily at the Office of the Surgeon General and the local Red Cross Procurement Office.

Wampum Class Play Lively Presentation

Large Crowd Sees Juniors' Production Of 'Young And Lively' At High School

Audience at 'Young and Lively', the junior class play at Wampum high school, was delightfully entertained Thursday evening. The cast surpassed the highest of expectations and all deserve praise. Their work was enthusiastic and the large crowd present applauded for numerous curtain calls.

The Means boys, dependent entirely upon their non-too-honest uncle for financial aid, are eventually aided by a young vagabond who originally had stopped at their home for the purpose of robbing them. The brothers reform him and he, in turn, discovers their uncle for what he really is.

Jealousy provides an interesting angle when Windy Williams plants a piece of stolen jewelry in the pocket of Bill Baker, the reformed vagabond. Windy confesses and the whole cast concludes the play remarking about the evils of the green-eyed monster.

Comedy is provided throughout by the young colored maid, Fanny Pearl. An amusing scene is the rehearsal of the dramatic club play by Garrison Garwood.

The class expressed its appreciation to the directors, Mrs. Jean Miles and Miss Marie McCann, by lavishly red roses presented to them between acts.

Music was furnished by the junior orchestra, and vocal selections between acts were sung by the sophomore girls' trio.

Brand New War Plant Stands Idle

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., April 21.—(INS)—Hanover township has a brand new war plant built with $500,000 in public funds but not a wheel has turned for the past three months.

The plant was constructed in the Berian section by the Defense Plant Corporation, a government agency, for the National Carbon company and was completed January 13.

Since then its only occupants have been a small number of guards. No effort has been made to produce war materials.

Insects, disease and decay cost an annual toll of $110,000,000 in U. S. timber, much of the loss being in old, over-ripe wood that should have been harvested long ago.

Strange Suicide Case Is Reported

JESSUP, Pa., April 21.—(INS).—Andrew Heldock, 41, of Jessup, was the victim today of a strange death, self-inflicted with the use of a rope and dynamite.

Deputy Coroner W. J. Barrett said Heldock stood atop a box, fastened a noose around his neck, placed the other end of the rope over a rafter and then held a dynamite cap against his chest.

He set off the explosive with a battery charge and the blast sent his body hurtling into space. As it dropped, the rope tightened and broke his neck.

Justice of the Peace Joseph Heldock, his brother, heard the explosion and rushed out to find the body suspended in a building at the rear of their home.

Running Mate In Fourth Term Race Not Named

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 21.—High-est New Dealers, who believe President Roosevelt must run for a fourth term, are authority today for declaring that he has made no choice as yet on a running-mate for the 1944 campaign.

This leaves Vice President Henry A. Wallace with a chance of again being Mr. Roosevelt's fellow nominee.

Two new names are being discussed in New Deal circles—Henry J. Kaiser, the shipbuilder and dam constructor, and Undersecretary of State Edward Stettinius Jr.

Others previously mentioned included Speaker Sam Rayburn, Sen. Harry Truman of Missouri, Associate Supreme Court Justice Frank Murphy of Michigan, Sen. A. B. "Happy" Chandler of Kentucky, and Foreign Economic Administrator Leo T. Crowley of Wisconsin.

At the moment, Sen. Truman holds the favorite role in Capitol Hill, though Speaker Rayburn has many supporters in Congress.

Wallace Not Rejected

Highest New Dealers say the President has by no means rejected Wallace as his running-mate, despite White House annoyance last year with Wallace's bungling in the board of economic warfare. They cite the President's dispatch of Wallace on a good will visit to China as evidencing his restoration to White House favor. Wallace will depart shortly but is scheduled to be back in the United States by July 19, the day the Democratic convention convenes in Chicago.

A cabinet member recently declared that "the President will chance it again with Wallace if he believes he can win with Wallace on the ticket."

Many Democratic leaders and some New Dealers oppose Wallace's renomination on the ground that he failed to bring Roosevelt the farm vote in 1940 and will only be a handicap to him in 1944. A very prominent Iowa Democrat recently said Roosevelt would lose Iowa, Wallace's home state, if Wallace were on the ticket.

Roosevelt To Decide

One of the President's closest friends, meanwhile, forecasts that Mr. Roosevelt will decide on a running-mate in mid-July by choosing the man who will give him the greatest help toward winning the bulk of the nation's estimated seven and a half million independent voters.

This authority declared that the President must regain large segments of lost support to overcome the present Republican trend and win next November. He said the President must:

1. Win back the Irish and either the Italian, or the Polish vote; or, 2. Win back his previous overwhelmingly united support from organized labor; or, 3. Recapture the support of the great mass of white-collar workers and small business employers and employees, who constitute the backbone of the independent vote.

If the President's friend is correct in weighing the factors that will influence the President's choice of a running-mate, all America may enter a guessing game of naming the next Democratic vice presidential nominee. He would be the man most likely to help Roosevelt win back the independent voter.

Moffett, renewing his running feud with Petroleum Coordinator Harold L. Ickes, assailed the proposed Arabian pipeline as a "disgraceful cartel against freedom of action of any American oil companies in foreign markets."

Moffett Charges British Demanded U. S. Oil Tankers

NEW YORK, April 21.—(INS)—James A. Moffett, retired oil executive, bluntly charged today that inefficiency on the part of the British in 1941 "derided our oil tankers fleet and endangered the battle fleet in the Pacific."

In a statement to newsmen, the former vice president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, also added that the British government at one time threatened to "give their oil away" to stop him if he "attempted to move Arabian oil into the market east of Suez."

Moffett, renewing his running feud with Petroleum Coordinator Harold L. Ickes, assailed the proposed Arabian pipeline as a "disgraceful cartel against freedom of action of any American oil companies in foreign markets."

New Ceiling Prices On Synthetic Tires

HARRISBURG, April 21.—(INS)—New ceiling prices for unusual synthetic rubber tires and tubes were announced today by the Harrisburg district Office of Price Administration.

Effective May 1, the most popular size of passenger car tire, 6.00-16, have a new ceiling price of $16.05, regardless of brand. Previous temporary ceilings on the same synthetic tire were $17.11 for manufacturers' brands and $15.37 for private brands. The OPA said the net effect was a decrease in prices to the public as manufacturers' brands make up the larger part of production.

In general, tubes and truck tires were continued at existing retail ceilings, the OPA announcement stated. Retail and wholesale ceilings on recapping and recapped tires continued in effect unchanged. New tires can be purchased only upon presentation of a certificate from a war price and rationing board.

Private Mirosh joined the services in 1941. As a paratrooper he was one of the first American soldiers to participate in the North African campaign. Convention Sunday In Wampum Church

Annual convention of Wampum District of the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association, will be held at the Wampum Presbyterian church, Wampum, Sunday afternoon and evening April 23. The afternoon session will start at 7:30 p. m. and the evening session at 7:30 p. m.

The speaker of the evening session will be Dr. G. S. Bennett, minister of the First Christian church of New Castle, and at this session there will also be installation of officers, special music, roll call of schools, and opening devotionals in charge of the Young People.

At the afternoon session there will be an "Information Please" open forum and discussion period, special music and opening devotionals, as well as a business session and election of officers.

Point Values For Lamb Will Be Cut

WASHINGTON, April 21.—(INS)—OPA said today that a 50 per cent reduction in point values for lamb will go into effect April 30 but a spokesman termed as "wild guessing" reports that point values for butter will be cut in half and pork removed from the ration list. Specific reductions in points required for various cuts of lamb were not announced.

March 16 was Apple Day at the Kansas State Teachers College at Pittsburg, Kan., when the faculty gave its annual treat to the students in commemoration of the founding of the state in 1907.

In these critical times
it's especially important to make your home CLOROX-CLEAN
...for Greater Health Protection!

HEALTH PROTECTION is more important today than ever due to reduced civilian medical facilities, and the need to keep America's workers on the job for Victory. These are added reasons why health authorities are urging housewives throughout the nation to maintain high standards of home sanitation. Clorox used in routine cleaning makes household "danger zones" hygienically clean.

WHY TAKE CHANCES!
"When it's CLOROX-CLEAN
it's hygienically
clean!"

Your Kitchen can be one of the main sources of possible infection unless made hygienically clean. It's easy to combat kitchen germ dangers with Clorox... it disinfects, deodorizes and removes stains from dishes, glassware, tile, enamel, linoleum, wood surfaces. Clorox also bleaches and removes stains from dishcloths... makes them fresh-smelling, sanitary.

In the Bathroom where millions of germs may cling to seemingly clean surfaces, Clorox-Cleanliness is important, too. Make it a regular habit to disinfect with Clorox in routine cleaning of washbasins, bathtubs, toilets, floors, tile, enamel and woodwork. And Clorox makes your bathroom spick-and-span... for it removes stains and brightens surfaces.

And in Laundering, sanitation is vitally important as an added safeguard to health. Clorox used in laundering makes white and color-fast cottons and linens hygienically clean. It gently bleaches white cottons and linens (brightens fast colors), removes stains, scorch, mildew. Clorox also lessens rubbing, thus conserving your hard-to-replace linens.

Remember, when you buy Clorox, you get the same full strength, same high quality for your money, today as always. Clorox is ultra-refined, free from caustic... an exclusive, patented quality-feature. Clorox is efficient and extra-gentle in use. Simply follow directions on label. There is only one Clorox, always ask for it by name.

Junior Red Cross Committee Formed

Organization Of Student Red Cross School Groups Explained At Meeting

At the Red Cross chapter house on Wednesday a meeting was held for the purpose of organizing a Junior Red Cross committee for the Lawrence County Chapter. Dr. John A. Meehan, chairman, presided. Speaker was Cecil D. Denning, assistant to the director of the American Red Cross, from area headquarters, who explained in detail the organization of the Junior Red Cross in the schools.

Committee members are: Frank L. Burton, John C. Syling, Miss Ruth Lewis, Mrs. Kenneth Beck, Mrs. Nell Hogue and Mrs. Hazel Wilson, both of New Wilmington. Mrs. Wayne Davis and Miss Esther Landman, both of Bessemer, Mrs. Alan Crowe, of Ellwood City, and Mrs. W. F. Miller, of Hillsville.

As the only chartered organization in the schools of the nation that renders services to the armed forces, the Junior Red Cross is expected to render certain services the same as the adult Red Cross. Mr. Denning explained that it is an international organization, as well as local, although the war has interrupted activities in many countries.

Primary Purpose
Primary purposes of the Junior Red Cross is to relieve suffering, that is, service to others. An active Junior Red Cross has educational and social value to the students who make up its membership. Mr. Denning brought out:

Each school can take part in any one of the three services, local, national, or international. It may select its own project from needs for any of these services.

A workable setup for the Junior Red Cross, the speaker explained would be for different members of the committee to head the program for a particular area of the county with teacher sponsors as the key people of the organization. There should be one teacher interested in the work in each school to stimulate activity of the organization. Each school group would choose its own program.

He gave an explanation of the junior nutritional program in response to a question by Mrs. William Cosel. Mention of the handling of Junior Red Cross funds and method of enrollment of students in groups by grades or in groups of 100 in high schools, brought the meeting to a close.

Teacher sponsors met Thursday afternoon at the chapter house.

Some Unpleasant News For Japanese

AN AMERICAN THUNDERBOLT STATION IN BRITAIN, April 21.—(INS)—Capt. Bob Johnson, Thunderbolt pilot with more Nazi planes downed in combat than any other American ace in the European theatre, had some mighty unpleasant news today for the Japs.

With 25 German planes to his credit, Johnson said he hopes to stay in the European theatre until he passes Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker's world war record of 26. Then, he said, he would like to go to the Pacific and shoot Japs.

"Shooting down Nazi fighters is good sport," said the Lawton, Okla., veteran. "But I want to kill my share of Japs."

Hears Grandson German Prisoner

Lieut. Albert Clapie, Air Force Pilot, States That He Is Well

Mrs. Alice Clapie of the Durkin apartments, 447 East Washington street, has received word through her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clapie of New Brighton, formerly of this city, that their son, Lieut. Albert Clapie, is a prisoner of war in Germany.

On February 10 the parents got word from the war department at Washington, D. C., that their son was missing in action. April 5 word came from the war department that Lieut. Clapie was a German prisoner.

This week, Mr. and Mrs. Clapie received a card from their son, dated middle of February, stating that he was a prisoner in Germany, that he was well, unharmed, and asking them not to worry.

Lieut. Clapie was a pilot in the air force and had been stationed in England since October. He has been in the service for four years. He visited his home in September, after 15 months of absence.

Truck Tires Must Still Be Inspected

Harry G. Boyd, district manager of the Office of Defense Transportation, today reminded operators of all types of commercial motor vehicles that they are still required to have their tires inspected periodically under ODT orders, although the Office of Price Administration has lifted the requirement for passenger car tire inspection, effective April 20.

Under General Order ODT 21, as amended, operators of trucks, buses and taxicabs must have their tires checked after each 5,000 miles of operation, or every six months of operation if less than 5,000 miles.

Inspections are made by any agency designated by the OPA.

ITHACA, N. Last year the plan brought $17,312 in war bonds and stamps to the university, with a maturity value of more than $22,000. The effort was endorsed by Secretary of Treasury Morgenthau.

HARRISBURG, April 21—House majority leader Franklin H. Lichtenwalter has disclosed that duplication of names will be minimized when the state defense council and other organizations canvass homes for the proper military addresses of Pennsylvanians over 21 years of age.

Lichtenwalter, a member of the committee drafting amendments to the absentee voting laws, said election officials will use alphabetical lists instead of the standard street records. This will enable local officials to check names immediately against returned military ballots. He admitted, however, that the method would only minimize duplications and would not eliminate it because check lists may be prepared erroneously.

Axis Powers Are Now Relying On Disunity In U. S.

NEW YORK, April 21—(INS)—The United States must recapture the "terrible unity" that existed immediately after Pearl Harbor so that the war can be won sooner, Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson declared today.

The Axis powers, Patterson said at a meeting sponsored by the New York Times, are relying on disunity on the American home front to prolong the war and bring a "negotiated" peace that would give them a final victory in the next war they are already planning.

Governor Martin In Washington In Dairy Conference

Asks Government For Higher
Prices For Northwestern
Pennsylvania Dairy
Farmers

WASHINGTON, April 21.—(INS)—Gov. Edward Martin of Pennsylvania asked the government today to give dairy farmers in 12 northwestern states higher prices and needed machinery and supplies.

Martin and representatives from the other states met in a special conference with Price Administrator Chester A. Bowles, Economic Stabilization Chief Fred Vinson and War Food Administrator Marvin Jones.

Outlining vital problems affecting the dairy industry and the 40 million consumers within the 12 northwestern states, Martin opened the conference by urging that the government:

1. Announce a program of policy for the dairy industry to enable farmers to plan their future operations with some degree of assurance.

2. Take such action as may be necessary to enable the various state and market officials to carry out their functions as designated by state and federal laws.

Martin declared that the feed supply generally has been maintained during the past winter but he warned that "reserves are seriously low and the outlook for the future is alarming."

"Recent changes in selective service regulations, if carried out, will reduce the production of both feed and milk," he said. "The labor situation is further aggravated by lack of farm machinery and equipment. The securing of repair parts continues to be a grave problem."

"An increased financial return to the producers will help prevent further serious reductions to our milk supply. Adequate returns will enable our farmers to bid in the open market for the type of labor, equipment and supplies they must have."

Morgenthau To Outline Program

Congress Committees To Hear
Principles For International Monetary Stabilization

By WILLIAM THEIS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 21.—(INS)—Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau is scheduled to outline to seven committees of Congress today the principles agreed upon by 31 United Nations for the establishment of an international monetary stabilization program.

General terms of the plan, it was learned, were revealed yesterday to the chairmen of the House and Senate committees which today will hear Morgenthau's "progress report."

"I think he has made pretty good progress," declared Rep. Somers (D-N.Y.), chairman of the House Coinage committee, and one of the four committee heads who conferred with the cabinet officer in Speaker Rayburn's office.

Morgenthau meets behind closed doors this morning with the Senate foreign relations, banking and currency committees. This afternoon he appears before the House foreign affairs, banking and currency, ways and means, and coinage committees.

It was understood that details of the fund stabilization plan will be made public tonight.

As outlined to congressional committees last fall, the plan to stabilize world currencies involved a five billion dollar international fund, to which the United States would contribute in excess of two billion dollars.

Nations would contribute to the fund on the basis of their holdings in gold. It was conceded as likely in congressional circles that there have been changes in the program and in the size of the stabilization fund since Morgenthau "reported" to Congress last October.

The American Radio Relay League estimates that of the 60,000 amateur radio operators in the United States, 25,000 are serving in the armed forces.

Use Army Trucks In London Strike

Worst Transportation Tieup
In Years Caused By London Bus Strike

By JOHN E. LEE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, April 21.—With British army trucks already pressed into emergency service to help handle thousands of commuting war workers, the leaders of London's striking bus drivers today were reported facing the threat of government prosecution in a drastic move to end the capital's worst transportation tieup in seven years.

Bus strikers delegates met and decided to return to their garages and recommend a resumption of work tomorrow morning.

More than 2,000 drivers were estimated to be on strike in protest against their new summer schedules. Although 300 of them voted early this morning to return to work immediately, in other localities the strike appeared to be gaining strength.

Five hundred employees at the Manchester Gas Works went on strike last night in a dispute over two cents an hour on their salaries, and service to the city's 220,000 gas-burning homes was cut off at once. War industries also were seriously threatened by this new outbreak of work-stoppage.

As a result, the political correspondent of the Daily Express predicted that the government will move against the ringleaders under the terms of the recently-imposed anti-strike law, which provides jail terms and heavy fines for agitating labor disturbances in key industries.

The bus strike gave London its worst transport tieup since 1937. Additional employees walked out last night after the war cabinet sent army trucks and soldiers into the city to operate on crippled routes so that war workers could reach their plants unhindered. Rush hour crowds also were handled by the army services.

Reuters news agency reported that Labor Minister Ernest Bevin is believed to be "considering what steps he can take against the strikers."

Report 50,000 Left Stranded

WASHINGTON, April 21.—(INS)—Approximately 250 drivers and maintenance employees of the Arnold Bus Lines were on strike today leaving an estimated 50,000 persons stranded in Washington and nearby Virginia during the morning rush hours.

The walkout—termed by the employees' union a "continuous meeting"—began at midnight as the result of contract differences which caused a similar cessation of operations last November.

Because the Arnold Lines operate the only public transportation to many military installations in Arlington, army and navy officials ordered trucks and lorries into service at key points to transport workers. WACs were pressed into service as drivers for many of the army vehicles.

New President Of D.A.R. Named

NEW YORK, April 21.—(INS)—A Vote-weary D.A.R., which overcame the handicap of unfamiliar voting machines to elect itself a new president-general, Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge of Athens, Ga., returned to the polls today in the third attempt to complete its slate of national officers.

Mrs. Talmadge, stately and patrician business woman and plantation owner, is the first southern woman to hold the position of president-general. Under her leadership, she said, the D.A.R. will continue its impressive war service program.

Hitler Making Desperate Moves For Nazi Defense

(Editor's Note: Pierre J. Huss, noted international news service war correspondent, in the following article tells how Adolf Hitler is desperately scraping the manpower barrel inside Germany in anticipation of an all-out invasion of western Europe.)

By PIERRE J. HUSS
U. S. Staff Correspondent

SUPREMACY ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, England, April 21.—Adolf Hitler is making no bets in tightening his grip on all able-bodied manpower inside Germany as a major offensive against all European allies is expected to spring from an allied invasion, informed sources told this correspondent today.

Under an urgent decree, Hitler has called all German men who might have escaped auxiliary service or supervision so far and ordered them to engage in intense rifle shooting practice. The S. A. (organization) has been charged with the job of seeing to it that throughout April every German who can walk or breathe will learn to shoot a rifle.

Purpose Is Twofold

On the surface, the purpose of the latest Hitler move is obvious, as partly explained by the official announcement: "All Germans must learn to use a rifle. Every German ready to defend his country must give evidence of his wish to be able to use arms. This in itself will be a powerful demonstration of the faith in victory and the German people's determination to fight."

There is another underlying reason for this decree, carefully left unsaid. The decree draws the ropes of control much tighter around the last able-bodied and peevish German, including the disabled and discharged soldier who might get out of hand at a critical moment.

Under S. A. supervision, new discipline and political propaganda are to be initiated into the lagging spirit of the average German after nearly five years of war. Furthermore, such a procedure entails further and additional documentation of all concerned, so that bombards and other stragglers who may have lost themselves purposely or unintentionally in the crowd can now be brought back under official scrutiny.

The new decree conveniently brings into line the older men at about the same time that the Nazi machine is mobilizing for war-training the 16-year-olds.

Older Folks Dubious

The fanatical training in Nazism given the youngsters almost from cradle days makes them fairly reliable material in any situation, but lack of the same Nazi faith among the older classes has always been a source of doubt and worry in Hitler ranks.

A perfect cloak for the Gestapo observation and supervision of older and other able-bodied Germans has always been the S. A., so that the rule edict provides an additional safeguard to the already rigid homefront control.

The regular non-army controls also continue to function, some of which claim part-time activity of civilian Germans or some sort of semi-military activity. They all compel the member to march rigidly in line, or risk denunciation by Nazi minions to the Gestapo.

Then there are the "Wacht" organizations, something like the national guard back home, or the English home guard. They function as auxiliary police, and are expected to keep an eye on foreign workers, to settle any troublesome local outbursts, and to track down escaped foreign workers or prisoners-of-war.

Then comes that vast field under Hitler which includes the ruthless Gestapo and armed troops, plus the various categories of regular police, special state police and complete units of motorized formations ranking with the best German military troops. Behind all this, like an untold hand, is the secret branch of the Gestapo, with its practically unlimited police powers. This is a network without loopholes, upon which Hitler can count in any crisis.

But if all these control mediums should still offer opportunity to any self-willed German to escape the Hitler grip, then he faces serious penalties if caught by various decrees now promulgated.

No one is better aware of the fact than Hitler that the invasion and the Russians can be fought by the Wehrmacht only as long as the homefront is solid.

First Waste Paper Sale Netted $1,000 For Scouts Here

Net Proceeds Of Sale Of Paper Tomorrow Will Also Go To Scouts

From the sale of waste paper collected in the first paper collection in New Castle, a total of $1,000 was realized, according to Ross D. Rosenberg, Salvage Chairman for Lawrence County, today. Of this money $500 has been given to the Boy Scouts and $500 to the Girl Scouts. The balance is kept for collection which were underwritten. The net proceeds of the sale of the paper collected tomorrow will also go to the two Scout organizations.

The collection tomorrow is headed by Joseph Hartman, city collection chairman who has done a magnificent job in laying the ground work for it. Thomas F. Allen, Scout Executive is providing 20 volunteer Scouters for the work of unloading the trucks. Frank T. Sargent, city director of the Office of Civilian Defense is providing 20 air raid wardens to assist in the work and Clara B. Book, commander of the Perry S. Garrison Post, No. 343, American Legion is providing 9 Legionnaires to aid. W. H. Lukart of the Pennsylvania Power Company will be on hand with ten men to assist in loading the cars and William Dix of the Universal Sanitary will have eight men, Edward L. Brundage of the National Radiator, eight men and the National Biscuit Company and Quaker Oats Company are sending men to help.

All the collection needs to be a huge success is a lot of paper and this can be provided by you and you.

Endorse Roosevelt For Fourth Term

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., April 21.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania Federation of Labor this afternoon formally endorsed President Roosevelt for a fourth term, joining the Pennsylvania Industrial Union Council (CIO) in backing the chief executive for re-election.

The 1100 delegates overrode the suggestion of their committee on political activities that action be postponed until after the two parties had held their national conventions in Chicago next June.

The two labor groups, the largest in the state, claim a union membership of 650,000. The state CIO's action was taken Wednesday at the P. I. U. C. convention in York.

Landing Craft Plants Inspected

PITTSBURGH, April 21.—(INS)—Undersecretary of the Navy James V. Forrestal was in Pittsburgh today to inspect plants turning out landing craft, which will play a vital part in the impending invasion of Adolf Hitler's fortress Europe.

He was accompanied by C. B. Wilson, executive secretary of the War Production Board. They were to visit plants of the Dravo Corporation and the American Bridge Company. Forrestal indicated that the landing craft now being completed "will be needed very soon, probably in Europe."

COLOR-BLIND MARINE HAS KEEN CAMOUFLAGE EYE

CAMP ELLIOTT, Calif., April 21.—Marine Pvt. Warren B. Garrot of Houston, Tex., may be color-blind but this defect has saved him in good stead, his instructors at the scouts and snipers school will testify.

Camouflage which would fool another man is easily penetrated by Garrot's eyes. He can spot movement in thick brush and rough terrain, even at great distances, with the aid of field glasses.

In addition to his ability to see the enemy, Garrot also has unusual accuracy with a rifle, being able to hit a target more than 1,000 yards away.

FACES NEW CHARGE

PITTSBURGH, April 21.—(INS)—Frank Prelosa, alias Frank Christy, who is awaiting a criminal court trial in Pittsburgh on charges of operating a numbers lottery today faced an additional federal charge of illegal possession of gasoline rationing coupons.

Police reported seizing the coupons along with $41,000 when they raided his home.

AWARDED COMMISSION

PITTSBURGH, April 21.—(INS)—Pittsburgh Councilman J. P. McArdle today had been awarded $876.13 by a court jury as a commission for placing a contractor's performance bond with an insurance firm with which he works when not busy with his city duties. The commission claim had been disputed by Emil G. Rossi.

Chiselers Still Tap State Relief Funds

HARRISBURG, April 21.—The Department of Public Assistance reported that relief chiseling is still a major problem in Pennsylvania despite the decrease in unemployment and assistance cases.

The department said in 1943 when there were 220,000 persons receiving State aid, the claims settlement division prosecuted 819 cases involving $131,500.

In comparison, the division added that in 1941 when the rolls contained 473,000 persons, there were 1767 prosecutions involving $325,000, and in 1942 there were 316,000 persons in the rolls, 1141 prosecutions involving $135,000.

Secretary Samuel Y. Ramage explained that no special drive was under way but save assurance that the department has been and will continue to "thoroughly investigate and prosecute" all attempts to defraud the State.

GETS TWO POUNDS OF SUGAR EXTRA

SPRINGFIELD, Mass.—(INS)—The letter asked for extra coupons for two pounds of sugar and a can of shortening, and the Longmeadow rationing board dutifully complied. You see, the letter came from 10-year-old Judy Rush, who explained that if she didn't get the ingredients the U.S.O. would be short several dozen cookies.

While visiting the servicemen's center, the girl sampled some "cookies" and was told that they came from kindly neighbors, who took the trouble to see that the men were supplied.

After noticing that the cookie booklet was not as well filled as it might have been, the girl, along with co-worker Ruth Lawton, wrote to the rationing board.

Declares Dissatisfaction Being Occasioned In Australia Now

LONDON, April 21.—(INS)—The political columnist of the London News Chronicle said today that the "politics" of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, American supreme commander in the southwest Pacific, are causing dissatisfaction in Australia.

The columnist, Arthur J. O. Cummings, pointed out that Gen. MacArthur for a long time was the idol of the Australian people, and said the commonwealth populace still is immensely grateful to him for his services which they credit with stopping Japanese invasion.

"But it would be idle not to admit a growing sense of dissatisfaction in Australia over the fact that the strategy for its defense is entirely decided by America," the writer said.

Explaining that Gen. MacArthur dominates the military scene, the writer said:

"This dissatisfaction is strengthened by the conviction that the communications issued from MacArthur's headquarters do not give an objective picture of what is happening at the front, and by the propaganda given out by the members of his staff which magnify his merits to an absurd degree."

Even in America, the writer continued, "similar ideas of MacArthur have been coming to light."

Cummings said that "what Australian politicians and others fear is that MacArthur's actions may be influenced by his political ambitions in the United States."

A few days ago, Cummings added, editorial comments in Australia pondered the question whether Gen. MacArthur was to be the leader of the Australian forces "in future hazardous undertakings," or whether "at some critical juncture his place is to be taken by some other, while the man in whom Australians placed their trust is plunged into the political vortex."

To Probe Alleged Censorship Of Personal Mail

WASHINGTON, April 21.—(INS)—Sen. Kenneth McKellar (D-Tenn., chairman of the post office committee, announced today that an investigation has been authorized into alleged violations of censorship of personal mail.

The general inquiry was prompted by the protests of Sen. Clyde Reed (R-Kans., over disclosures made by Rep. Coffee (D-Wash., that Vivian Kellums, Westport, Conn., business woman, had corresponded with Count Frederick Karl Von Zedlitz, in Argentina.

Reed plans to introduce a resolution in the senate today authorizing the investigation.

'Dewey-Bricker' Ticket No Lure To Ohio Leader

COLUMBUS, O., April 21.—(INS)—

Governor John W. Bricker of Ohio declared today on his return from a west coast presidential campaign tour that he was not interested in a possible Dewey-Bricker Republican presidential ticket.

"Any rumors of that kind are mere rumors and speculation in which I am not interested," Bricker said. "I am a candidate for the nomination for president."

Says Government Buys From Enemy In East Africa Now

WASHINGTON, April 21.—(INS)—

Congress was informed today that the government is buying sisal from Germans in Portuguese East Africa, even though it would be a violation of the trading with the enemy act if individuals made such purchases.

Sisal is a fibre used in the manufacture of binding twine. The purchases were made by the foreign economic administration according to testimony given before a senate agriculture committee by Patrick Gibb, president of the Linen Pulp Corp., of New York. Gibb has unsuccessfully sought authority from the war production board to manufacture flax products in the United States.

"The government has a buying agent in Portuguese East Africa," Gibb said. "Most of the farmers there are Germans. They came from German East Africa after the last war. They are still Germans."

"Private parties can't buy from them because it would be trading with the enemy, but the government can. They give the excuse that the sisal might otherwise get to Germany."

AROUND CITY HALL

Seldom does a police cruiser become a "baseball catcher," but such occurred Thursday afternoon in Cunningham avenue. Some boys were playing catch. One wild ball went through the windshield of the cruiser. Because of the error the boys have been ordered to appear before Mayor John F. Haven in the informal court he holds for youthful offenders every Saturday morning. In addition to the ball players, a number of boys will face His Honor for considerable damage they reportedly caused in the Booker T. Washington community house, Mahoning avenue.

Mayor John F. Haven today reported that a nephew of Mrs. Haven, an aerial gunner on a bomber that was lost over Germany, has been reported to be a prisoner of war in Germany. The nephew is Donald Double, of Baden, who has worked in this city.

H. Ketzler paid a fine of $10 at police headquarters yesterday on a charge of operating his auto 45 miles an hour in East Washington street recently. Lieutenant of Police Thomas Jones reported that police cars operated in Wilmington avenue yesterday, but failed to find any motorists speeding cars.

NEW WINDSHIELD AIDS ALLIED SHIPS IN STORM

NEW YORK, April 21.—Add to

leaps on the farm and electronics in the basement, a seagoing windshield on busses and locomotives. This safety device, a revolving windshield technically known as the "clear view screen" is in wide use on Allied cargo and naval vessels. A round movable segment of glass, mounted within the front window of the captain's bridge, is set going by a motor when the ship runs into stormy weather.

"It spins so fast," explained Morris F. Ketay, director of engineering of the marine division of Bendix Aviation Corporation, under whose direction the shield was developed, "that centrifugal force throws off sea-spray, rain, snow and even sleet and ice."

After the war this simple device should be available to safety-minded bus, truck, and even taxicab companies, Ketay said.

Legion Commander Censures Delay

NEW YORK, April 21.—(INS)—

Sharp criticism of the delay in moving the GI bill of rights legislation through Congress was voiced today by Warren H. Atherton, national commander of the American Legion.

In a news conference, Atherton vehemently criticized Rep. John Rankin, of Miss. chairman of the World War veterans committee, whom he charged as being the main obstacle in reporting of this bill to the House floor.

The legislation would provide for rehabilitation of war veterans and provide for unemployment insurance and other benefits for them.

The United States could build 10 battleships with the annual costs of insect and rodent damage.

SIXTH SERVICE COMMAND WATCHES FOOD WASTE

CHICAGO, April 21.—The average waste of edible food per day is approximately one ounce per man in the Army Air Forces messes in the Sixth Service Command, said Maj. Gen. H. S. Aurand, commanding general.

"That waste is edible food that could have been eaten and does not include such garbage as potato peeling," he said. "The waste is food that was scraped off of plates or thrown out of cooking pots or left-overs."

The Sixth Service Command which includes Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin, was the third lowest in the United States, Aurand said. The figures are based on 311 messes served at 18 ASP posts in the command.

Candidates for athletic games in ancient Greece did not eat meat but lived on new cheese, dried figs, and boiled grain with warm water.

Pitchers' Form Nettles Hitters

Hurlers Boast Four Shut-Outs And Two Two-Hit Games

BATTERS TRAINING HURT BY WEATHER

By LAWTON CARVER
(International News Service Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, April 21.—(INS)—The major league pitchers undoubtedly will be nothing in the world to get a fellow in shape for baseball like training in the snow and sleet and rain of the east and mid-west.

They are going to feel slighted and hurt when the day comes that spring camps will be pitched again that bright warm sunshine of the south and west. And they should not be. The records tell the story of the imposition they will suffer.

It works this way. When they train in the good weather of southern and western early springs all the work—or most of it—is conducted out of doors, and those pesky hitters get into fine shape, take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to get their eye on the ball and are "rain" and "sleet" and "hitters" get back on the big apple for the regular season.

Blizzards Prove For
But when they train where blizzards howl and about half the time it's not fitten out for best or ball-player, the pitchers gather in some armory, auditorium, gymnasium, basement or cow-shed and go right on putting their arms in shape while the hitters have to content themselves with walking briskly around the hotel lobby to work up an appetite for those steaks, if any, that the club pays for.

As a result, the hitters open the season blinking in the glare of the outdoors and experimentally twitching muscles grown flabby in the hotel arm chairs, and most of them can't even buy a hit. That makes it a pitcher's holiday, such as they are enjoying now.

Will Get Hitting Soon
In the 20 games played to date in the majors since the season opened on Tuesday there have been four shutouts, two two-hit games, and only three hits by the batters. The three-hitters pitched by Bucky Walters of the Reds, Jim Tobin of the Braves, Elmer Riddle of the Reds and Steve Sundra of the Browns; one four-hitter, pitched by Ewald Fyle of the Giants and a veritable flock of five-hitters and six-hitters.

It makes you shudder to think what the hitting would be like if some of the real fast ballers and curvers were around.

What it all amounts to is that the hitters actually have just begun their real training and it will be a matter of time until they have hit their real stride to decide whether the pitching or the hitting is to be off this season. It could be a little of both with nothing conclusive to be shown by tight pitching one day and free hitting the next.

Lanier's Pitching Hands Out
Meantime the clubs with the best pitching staffs will get a slight jump on the others. Not that it will matter significantly. The pennant is won or retained during the stretch.

Of the pitching performances turned in so far, Lanier's against the Pirates undoubtedly shades all the rest. Frank Frisch's club is supposed to be some kind of a dark horse in the National league, turning them back with two hits took considerable doing. Wynne's two-hitter against the Athletics yesterday wasn't exactly sloppy itself, but scarcely epoch-making. The A's have finished in the cellar the last four years in a row and any recent changes have been for the worst.

Expect 10,000 To See Rip Oppose Joe

PITTSBURGH, April 21.—(INS)—Between 10,000 and 15,000 fans were expected to be on hand today when the Pirates open the home baseball season in a tilt with the Cincinnati Reds at Forbes field. Ace Hurler Rip Sewell will be opposed by another western Pennsylvania entry, Joe Begas of Aliquippa, who is serving with the Reds pending a call to the navy.

As usual, the management announced, men and women in uniform will be admitted free to all games during the 1944 season.

War Heroes To Run For New York U.

PHILADELPHIA, April 21.—(INS)—Two decorated and wounded war veterans were listed today on the New York university track team entered in the Pennsylvania Relay Carnival at Philadelphia on April 28-29.

Jay Jackson Tunick, holder of the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Purple Heart, will compete in the discus, shot and hammer events, and Bernie Golding, wounded in the Salomaa campaign, will run in the 400-meter hurdles.

FANNIN PLAYERS GETTING READY

Arrangements for the start of the American Legion Junior Baseball league will be talked over at a meeting called for this evening by Frank Fannin, mentor of the Fannin's nine, for 8 o'clock at his home.

It is expected to have a strong aggregation in the field representing the East Side and players wishing to affiliate with the Fannin team are asked to attend tonight's meeting.

Dempsey, Grove In War Bond Drive

PITTSBURGH, April 20.—(INS)—Coast Guard Commander Jack Dempsey and Bob (Lefty) Grove, first of a parade of famous characters in the sports world, will appear Sunday at Forbes Field when the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Cincinnati Reds clash in a double-header in the interests of the Fifth War bond drive.

Joining the former heavyweight king and the famous pitcher will be wounded war veterans from the DeShon General Hospital, Butler and 160 Waves, Marines and Spars, along with the police and firemen's bands.

NATIONAL PRO'S NOT TO EXPAND

Players Can Talk To Coach During Time-Out Is Decision

PHILADELPHIA, April 21.—(INS)—Franchise bids from four cities were returned today after a decision by the National Football league not to expand for the duration.

The gridiron loop meeting in Philadelphia shelved bids made by Baltimore, Buffalo, San Francisco, and Los Angeles, and determined to continue in 1945 as an 11-team league. A schedule for the coming season has not yet been made.

The seven rule changes recommended were ratified at last night's meeting. Major revisions include coaching from a specific part of the sidelines, elimination of out-of-bounds kicking, free substitutions, permission for players to confer with bench coaches during a timeout and permission for the kicking team to run all kicks received behind the line of scrimmage.

Marshall Battles LaMotta Tonight

CLEVELAND, April 21.—They'll be betting even—money—take—"your pick" when Jake La Motta and Lloyd Marshall enter the Arena tonight to do combat in a 10-rounder that has brought about a wave of unparalleled hysterical wagering on the outcome of the "natural" between the No. 1 middleweight and the No. 1 light-heavyweight.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

U. S. Army Air Forces and the world of sports is mourning the loss of a staunch military aviation enthusiast and a great polo player, Lieutenant-Colonel Thomas Hitchcock Jr., who was killed in an airplane accident in Great Britain. The colonel, known world-wide as Tommy Hitchcock during his polo-playing days, died instantly in a crash Tuesday, according to the cablegram sent by U. S. Ambassador John G. Winant to Mrs. Hitchcock at her New York residence. He died when a Mustang he was flying crashed during a non-operational flight. The polo player had been serving as chief of the Ninth Fighter Command's traditional research section. Dartmouth students and alumni are also mourning for Lieutenant JG Charles Pearson, big smiling Stubby, Phi Beta Kappa football and basketball captain in 1941-42. He has been reported missing in the South Pacific.

Ernie Konvinka in the Beaver Falls Tribune reports Pete Krieg of Washington, D. C., may have the right idea when he says: "Wars may come and wars may go—but baseball will go on 4-Per and 4-Fr." Pvt. Wayne Harper is going through boot training at Parris Island. He reports having seen Gene Sarazen play golf. Sam Manguirelli is stationed at the U. S. N. T. S. Bainbridge. Dory Gunnert, 29, we've been told, is at the same place. Ralph Criswell went there several weeks ago. Nicholas Cagnetti, U. S. Navy is at Miami, enroute his station.

Seth Myers who writes "Northwest Sportsman" in the Sharon Herald reports that "under present conditions many youngsters who are ready for training in outdoor sports are out of luck because of fathers in the military service. The solution of the problem is for every sportsman club to sponsor and conduct a junior chapter for its worthwhile purpose." Myers advises is worthwhile and herewith passed on to the Lawrence County Sportsman's association. Herman Taylor, Philadelphia, went south for a vacation. While away his assistant, Pete Moran staged three boxing shows and grossed $70,000. Maybe Pete will get a vacation or pause after that feat. Hugh Fullerton Jr. remarks: "Sign of the times. Two Philadelphia newspapers sent girl reporters to cover the football meetings in Philadelphia."

Report Increase In Gray Foxes

HARRISBURG, April 21.—(INS)—A considerable increase in the number of gray foxes during the past year was indicated today in a bounty report made public by the state game commission.

Claims submitted to the commission during the past three months for the $4 bounty exceeded those for a comparable period the preceding year by 1400 and totaled 6566.

Although there is no bounty on the red fox in Pennsylvania, the commission reported that sportsmen locally are helping effectively to control them.

Delaware Meet To Pay Half Million

WILMINGTON, Del., April 21.—(INS)—The Delaware Steeplechase and Racing association announced today that the 1944 meet, running from May 29 to July 4, inclusive, will have a stake and purse distribution of approximately $450,000.

The minimum purse will be $1,500. The $5,000 added Dover Stakes, a five-furlong event for two-year-olds, will be the opening day feature and the $5,000 added Wilmington Handicap will be run on Memorial Day.

HAYCOCK ILL

Sam Haycock, general manager of the Sylvan Heights golf course, is recovering from an attack of pneumonia, it is reported. Manager Haycock is now able to sit up a little each day after being critically ill.

Mueller's Hit Beats Chi-Cubs

New York Giants Scalp Braves And Cards Out-class Pirates

ST. LOUIS BROWNS BANG TIGERS TWICE

NEW YORK, April 21.—(INS)—Ray Mueller, veteran backstop of the Cincinnati Reds, is demonstrating in this young baseball season what it takes to win games.

Mueller's secret is to walk up to the plate in the clutch, take a good toe-hold, follow the pitch closely then slam one somewhere for a safe hit.

He did it after this fashion on Wednesday to give the Reds a 2 to 1 victory over the Chicago Cubs. The winning clout was a two-run double.

Yesterday with the score tied 1-1 in the ninth, two out and the bases loaded he singled and gave the Reds two out of three over the Cubs. In the meantime, some old gangsters known as the Boston Braves were whipping the Boston Braves for a clean sweep of the series, 10 to 8. Manager Mel Ott, Ernie Lombardi and Joe Medwick planted homers and Cliff Melton was credited with the win, although he was hauling his freight out of there in the ninth.

Mort Driven From Mound
The St. Louis Cardinals beat the Pittsburgh Pirates by 5 to 3 on Walker Cooper's single and Ray Sanders' double. Mort Cooper was driven to the showers by the Buccaroos.

Brooklyn's Dodgers won a free-fighting battle with Philadelphia, 2 to 2.

In the two American league games St. Louis made a clean sweep of the Detroit series, 8 to 5. Verne Stephens continued to pace the Browns' attack and Hal Newhouse, Tiger starter, was driven to the showers. Early Wynn turned back the Philadelphia Athletics, 5 to 0, with one of those frequent early-season two-hitters.

The clubs which opened the season on the road return to their home parks today for their own openers. In the National league New York goes to Brooklyn to measure the sometimes bitter metropolitan feud between these two. Philadelphia is at Boston, Cincinnati at Pittsburgh and St. Louis at Chicago. In the American league Washington plays at New York, Boston at Philadelphia, Chicago at St. Louis and Detroit at Cleveland.

STATE FORESTS' TROUT STREAMS WELL STOCKED

HARRISBURG, April 21.—During the 1944 trout season which opened Saturday, April 15, the more than 2500 miles of well-stocked streams in the state forests will provide many hours of needed recreation and thousands of pounds of food for Pennsylvania fishermen.

These mountain streams are open to the public. Dense forest growth along many of them provides excellent shade, food and protection for trout.

Fish stream improvement within the state forests has been carried on for a number of years. Secretary James A. Kell, of the Department of Forests and Waters, points out. The object is to develop and maintain conditions most favorable to the growth and production of fish life. By the use of small dams, log covers, deflectors and other devices, changed conditions of flow may be made to restore a balance of productivity of the stream. The dams which have been built are low obstructions in the stream bed and extend from bank to bank so as to raise the water level. They create a pool and are so constructed so the fish can have easy passage in all directions.

Deflectors are constructed of logs, stones and other materials which are placed across a portion of the channel to concentrate the flow in a limited area and at the same time increase the water velocity. The line material which is picked up by the current is deposited in the still water behind the deflectors or in pools farther down the stream. The pools which are formed as a result of these deflectors make good sites for the growth of aquatic plants which provide fish food and at the same time furnish shelter.

Small mountain streams abound in the State Forests and the construction of these pools have increased breeding facilities and healthful conditions for fish life. As a result, better fishing and more fish are possible for the Pennsylvania sportsman.

Miami Hopes To Land Post War Football Games

Southerners Would 'Spot'
Annual Play-Off Game
In Florida

NO FINANCIAL OR STADIUM PROBLEMS

By DAVIS J. WALSH
(International News Service Sports Editor)

PHILADELPHIA, April 21.—Perhaps it was more interesting to learn not so much what was going to happen to college football, via the pro league, by special rule enacted, as what might happen to the pro league itself.

The rule in question made it clear that the pro did not intend to stand aside while the colleges grabbed off the best of the returned military footballers like Angelo Bertelli of Notre Dame, and others. But far more interesting was the imaginative plan of Harvey Heston and Doug Wycoff, the old Georgia teacher, who not only want to put postwar football into Miami, Fla., but have a follow-the-sun program that more than feasible. It easily might wind up with the football season encompassing deep into and upon baseball's favorite domain for midwinter prattle and gossip.

Football World Series? What this pair would do if ever they got a National football league franchise would be first to "spot" the annual league playoff in Miami. And then exhumate the cadaver of the old pro bowl event between the champions and the All Stars of the league.

This would, maybe, be played like baseball's world series, on the basis of four out of seven games, with various games "spotted" in Miami, New Orleans, Dallas, Fort Worth, San Francisco and Los Angeles. It was in the latter city we feel we have some reason to believe that the pro bowl game either originated or at least reached its highest point of development.

Stadium Seats 75,000 Let's try to understand each other, "said Harvey Heston, in going over the situation. "We haven't any 160 acres of land, as was printed Wednesday afternoon. If we had anything like that in a desirable part of Miami we wouldn't even be trying to get into professional football. We'd subdivide and let nature have it's head.

"But here is what we have got: full financing, a district where you draw 30,000 for high school games, a projected stadium seating 75,000 and a fool-proof plan of operational outlines. These would include playing early games in the north, and the rest in Miami. We aren't counting on the winter season, but I'll tell you this much: we couldn't be playing our games far, either in time or distance, from the tropical park mooring.

"Is Or Someone Else Let's get this straight, too," he added slowly. "I'm not up here trying to sell somebody a bill of goods. I'm only suggesting we're ready to operate on the kind of basis the national football league or anybody... should be interested in.

"I'll make one prediction... if the National league doesn't do it with us directly after the war, they'll be doing it with somebody sooner or later."

WPIAL Track Meet At Connellsville

PITTSBURGH, April 21.—The annual WPIAL track and field meet, usually held at the Pitt Field House, will be held in Connellsville Saturday, May 20, the track committee ruled at a meeting in the Fort Pitt hotel.

No sectional qualifying meets will be held prior to the championship event, the committee ruled, and asked that all schools have their entries in to Chairman Don Mollenauer on or before Friday, May 12.

NEW SCHOLASTIC GRID LEAGUE SET

HUNTINGDON, Pa., April 21.—Formation of a new Central Pennsylvania High School Football league, to be known as the Big Thirteen, was approved last night at a meeting of scholastic coaches and faculty managers here.

Members of the new league, which will operate within the Western Conference, will be the high schools of Huntingdon, Mount Union, Tyrone, Hollidaysburg, Lewisburg, State College, Bellefonte, Lock Haven, DuBois, Punxsutawney, Clearfield, Phillipsburg and Jersey Shore.

WAR RELIEF GAME Pittsburgh Pirates will engage the New York Giants in the two War Relief games this season, the first, a night game at Forbes Field on Wednesday, June 28, and the second a night game in New York on Wednesday, July 26.

Hundred War Brides Of Yanks Arrive In U. S.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21—(INS)—Almost a hundred war brides of Americans stationed in Australia were satisfying their curiosity about their new country in San Francisco.

Fourteen babies were among the group landed in San Francisco with Prime Minister John Curtin and his official party.

The wives entered this country as non-quota "immigrants" who may seek and receive citizenship papers after two years' residence in the United States.

The children born of American fathers overseas will become citizens, too, if they spend at least five years' residence in the United States or American possessions between their thirteenth and twenty-first years.

All the war brides were interested in various phases of life in America.

We've been very curious about America," said Mrs. Doris Lebusch, wife of Marine Corp. Lee Lebusch of Shinnston, W. Va. "American food seems a little strange."

Camp Reynolds Recruiter Coming Again Next Week

GREENVILLE, Pa., April 21—Lt. Walter L. Bartley, Camp Reynolds Recruiting officer, will return to the New Castle U. S. Employment office, Monday, April 24, for another week, in an effort to secure additional workers from the New Castle district for vital war work at the Army Camp.

Although successful in the civilian recruiting program carried on here the week of April 10th, Captain William W. Hague, head of the Recruiting Campaign, stated that numerous positions are still unfilled at the camp.

Interviews and temporary civil service appointments will be granted to qualified applicants by Lt. Bartley, beginning Monday, at the U. S. Employment office, New Castle, from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.

VICTORY GARDEN NOTES

By LEWIS C. DAYTON, County Agent

"CULTIVATION"

The purpose of cultivation is to destroy weeds. The soil should be cultivated only when it is dry enough that soil does not stick to the shoe. Shallow cultivation should be practiced so that the roots of growing crops will not be disturbed. Weeds can be killed as easily by cutting them off just under the surface of the ground as by digging them out to a depth of three inches.

Small weeds which have just sprouted are much easier to kill than those which are two or three weeks old. For this reason cultivation should be carried on every week as long as weeds continue to sprout or until the crops become so large that cultivation is difficult.

Weeds in the row should be killed by pulling or by careful use of the hoe. Leave the soil in a level condition following each cultivation.
